Strike In Hands Of Krug

Truman Declines To Discuss Lewis Threat; No Comment On Wage Control

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 — (AP) — President Truman left the threat of another nation-wide soft-coal strike squarely up to Secretary of Interior Krug today.

Mr. Truman declined to discuss John L. Lewis' ultimatum for a reopening of the United Mine Workers' contract at his news conference.

The president likewise declined to comment on questions as to his plans on continued wage controls, telling reporters to read his speech of Oct. 14 lifting price ceilings from meat.

Mr. Truman was asked if he planned any special action to decontrol wages by Nov. 1—the deadline which Lewis has set for the start of negotiations on a new contract to replace the existing pact between the United Mine Workers and the government.

In the Oct. 14 address, to which he referred reporters, Mr. Truman said that decontrol of meat necessitated speeding up renewal of price ceilings all along the line and that this in turn would accelerate wage decontrol.

Gradual Change

Government officials have said this means that no specific action to lift wage lids is likely, but that rather the administration will follow a policy of having pay controls fall off automatically as individual industries are freed of price controls.

At his news conference today, Mr. Truman would not be drawn into any elaboration of his statement that the answer on wages could be found in his speech on meat.

Pressed by a reporter as to whether he meant there will be no formal wage decontrol order, the president reiterated that that had been covered in his speech last week. He said he would have no further comment.

In response to a question as to whether he had any statement to make on the status of the wage stabilization board, Mr. Truman replied that he did not, and that he is not planning to make one this week. The status of the board is clouded by the resignation of the two industry members of the panel.

No Special Session

Without directly mentioning the threatened coal strike, another questioner asked Mr. Truman whether he had any intention of calling congress into a special session. He said no, adding that congressional leaders could arrange a special session but he had no knowledge of any such plan.

Mr. Truman was asked whether Lewis' ultimatum to Krug, now on a western tour, had been relayed to the chief executive.

That's in the hands of Mr. Krug the president replied. He reiterated this statement a couple of times, even when he was asked if the strike threat would be taken up at his cabinet meeting tomorrow. He only smiled when it was suggested that Krug is a member of the cabinet.

Krug told newsmen in Boulder City, Nev., last night he didn't see how he could be in Washington Nov. 1.

"But I don't think they will walk out," he added. "After all, the time and place of the meeting have been set."

Russian Buys Three Houses

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet representative to the United Nations, and important members of his delegation plan to move into Manhattan's fashionable upper east side by purchasing three town houses at a reported cost of more than $600,000.

Negotiations are almost completed for the purchase of the three houses on East 79th street, real estate sources said today.

The five-story houses, built about 40 years ago, are of limestone facade and contain extensive panelings and bronze fittings.

Gromyko recently leased four upper floors of a five-story apartment building on West 88th street for minor Russian employes.

Former Army Chaplain is Club Speaker

Talked on What GIs Look for in Thir Home Town

The Rev. L. A. Swan, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, who served as an army chaplain for three and one-half years, addressed his fellow Sedalia Kiwanians at their meeting in Hotel Bothwell Thursday noon.

The speaker's subject was based on what the returned GI looks for in his home community, and chose the letters of the Kiwanis motto, "Builders," to capitalize words that signify what the GI looks for, such as Belief in his community, Unity, Imagination, Leadership, Development, Education, and Religion.

In his army service the GI underwent indoctrination and orientation to a solid belief in the principles of the democracy in which he lived, was willing to fight for and die for. After service he retained these beliefs, but upon returning home and witnessing the strikes, domestic turmoil and economic confusion among the home folks the GIs begin to wonder whether the people he fought for really believe in their own democracy.

Trained to Be Honest

The GI was trained to be honest and unified in his purpose, characteristics which should prevail among the home folks in their task of setting the country toward the goals of peace domestically and internationally.

Unity, imagination, leadership and cooperation, the speaker said, could be applied to such discordant minor situations as that now existing between the city administration and the moving picture people in Sedalia.

The spirit of all the beliefs held by the returned GI is cemented by religion, the one great force vital to the stability of mankind.

The speaker was introduced by the Rev. Bird Campbell, program chairman.

Birthday Song

Birthday greeting song was sung for Robert Henderson, H. U. Hunt and J. F. Downs.

The Rev. Fr. A. J. Brunswick announced that on November 14 the Kiwanians would meet jointly with the Optimist club, when Violinist Rubinoff will be on the program. The Thursday meeting falling on Thanksgiving day will be moved forward to 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 26.

The annual football banquet with Smith-Cotton High school football team as guests will be held December 12 in the evening.

The Rev. H. U. Campbell called attention and asked member support of the Community Chest drive which begins October 28.

Leon Archias presented members with cigars in honor of his newly adopted son.

Poisoned Cocktails Kill American Soldier

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 24—(AP)—One American soldier is dead and 18 are ill, four critically, from drinking "cocktails" of poison alcohol and fruit juice in a prison stockade at Heidelberg, the U. S. Third Army announced today.

Apparently with a party in mind, the soldiers poured an alcoholic fluid, of a type used in printing duplicating machines, into the fruit joice although the can containing the fluid was marked poison, the announcement said.

Physicians said they hoped to save those who are ill.

Congress May Kill OPA In January

But There Will be Only a Slim List Then Under Ceilings

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Congress may kill OPA in January, some high administration officials predicted today.

But they added that by then only a slim list of very scarce, badly needed items in addition to rent will remain under ceilings.

As if to emphasize this forecast, OPA snatched its price tags from cosmetics and a long list of non-food products today in a quick followup to last midnight's sweeping food and beverage decontrol.

Together these two actions swept overboard another big segment of wage control because the government applies its pay curbs only when higher price ceilings are involved.

Statisticians said that in the case of food and restaurant industries alone, some 1,500,000 workers were cut loose from wage control.

On the food list, only sugar, syrups and rice remain under OPA.

Ceilings to Go

Frankly acknowledging that there is widespread belief in the government that congress will come back primed to knock out OPA quickly and finally, one ranking officially said privately the policy between now and year's end will be to get rid of ceilings rapidly but in orderly sequence.

This official said the view is that it would be to President Truman's political advantage to trim the controlled list to the bone, then let congress take the responsibility if it wants to go the rest of the way.

Housewives and their husbands meanwhile watched retail costs at groceries, restaurants and liquor stores, as OPA officials predicted the cost of living and drinking would certainly go up, at least temporarily, as a result of the bread to beer retreat from ceilings.

One OPA food authority said increases can be expected in bread and baked goods; jams, jellies and preserves; dry beans, canned fish, bananas and most whisky.

Trade sources generally expected some temporary price rises, but said there would be a gradual return to the old price system of supply and demand.

Liquor May Be Higher

Liquor industry spokesmen predicted that some aged Bourbon, Scotch and other whisky may appear again, but at somewhat higher prices. They said OPA ceilings had tended to keep them from markets.

A New York bakery leader anticipated little change in consumer prices on bread and baked goods, saying he expected flour prices to remain about the same. But a Chicago miller spokesman forecast a jump of 25 to 60 cents a hundred pounds on flour.

Besides cosmetics, with soap excluded, today's new decontrol list ranged from hot water bottles and other drug sundries to assorted lumber and paper items.

The lumber items are the few needed neither in home building nor for pulp paper.

Find Body of Herman Boggs

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. Witnesses at the inquest related that Boggs noticed a life preserver floating in the river and told them he was going to retrieve it.

His motor boat was found the next day between Rocheport and Huntsdale. A $50 reward had been offered for recovery of the body.

Boggs is survived by five brothers, all of the New Franklin community.

Bewildered by Huge Price His Steer Brought

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Goes Home With Check for $44,375

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—A 15-year-old farm boy from Ida Grove, Iowa, said goodbye to his grand champion Hereford steer today and pocketed almost with unbelief a check for $44,375 — the price brought by the animal at auction at a world record price of $35.50 a pound.

Jack Hoffman, 4-H member whose T. O. Pride was named 1946 grand champion steer of the American Royal Livestock Show was still bewildered today by the bidding last night. E. W. Williams of the Williams Meat Company, paid the record price. American Royal officials said the previous world record price was $11.50 a pound.

The tall farm youngster and Karl Hoffman, his father, were in the main arena as the price began to climb with some 100 bidders at the opening.

Surprised at Price

"I thought $4 a pound would be good," the youth said. "I figured it might go to $10 or $11 a pound. Even in hoping, I never had thought of more than $11 a pound.

But the bidding opened at $5 a pound. And there was a big grin on Jack's face as he led his 1,250-pound fortune in beef around the ring. The crowd of 7,000 at the night horse show stirred with excitement at the drama in the spotlighted arena.

When it was over, Jack could scarcely believe it. When the auctioneer called to him, "Jack do you think you can afford to sell for $35.50 a pound?" the boy's answer was a $44,375 grin.

"Wonder how much Uncle Sam will take in income taxes?" Jack asked later.

The local office of the collector of internal revenue went to its comptometers and came up with a figure of $20,965.31, assuming the boy had no other income and disregarding certain deductables.

As for T. O. Pride himself he will go on exhibition until Christmas then Williams plans to present the $35.50-a-pound steaks to his friends and customers as Christmas gifts. Williams said he had been determined to have the steer at any price.

From the Raton Ranch

The champion steer was purchased 17 months ago from the T. O. Ranch at Raton, N. M.

The Royal's reserve champion, a 1,240-pound Angus steer owned by Carl Harkness of Golden, Col., brought $10 a pound.

The previous American Royal top for a champion was $3 10 a pound, paid in 1941.

At an auction sponsored by the American Hereford Association, 47 Hereford breeding cattle brought $27,910, with a top bull price of $2,250. paid for Larry Domino 86th, a nine-month-old 900-pound calf owned by M. A. Feeney, Phoenix, Ariz., president of the association. The Bob White Farms of Enterprise, Kas., bought the bull.

Top price of $1,500 on cows went to the Maplecrest Hereford Ranch of Welljam, Iowa, for McStarlet 22nd, bought by H. E. Tabor of Berryville, Ark.

"Thus, an election in Greece supervised internationally, which results in an anti-communist majority, is at once denounced.

"On the other hand a plebiscite taken where the communist party is in power is regarded as the sacred voice of the people."

The prime minister said that to communists "freedom means the denial of liberty to all those who refuse to accept the communist philosophy."

The prime minister said "democracy is becoming a much abused word. It is often used by those who have never understood or practiced democratic principles."

Diplomatic Error Avoided

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and his party came within an ace of breaching diplomatic protocol yesterday after President Truman finished his speech to the opening session of the United Nations assembly, but the Russian statesman made a graceful recovery.

The Russian party unwittingly attempted to leave the assembly hall ahead of the president, by the exit reserved for the chief executive.

Secret service men, in line with security routine, asked the Russians to return to the chamber until Mr. Truman had left. A Russian interpreter explained the situation to Molotv, who quickly reentered the building.

As he returned, Molotov saw the president and his party, flanked by secret service men, making for the exit. The Soviet minister left his party, went to the president and schook his hand warmly.

"Mr. Molotov wanted to congratulate you heartily on that speech," the Russian interpreter, V. N. Pavlov, told the president. "He thought it was a great speech."

"I thank you most heartily," the president replied.

Veto Fight Looms As United Nations Assembly Gets Down to Business.

By John M. Hightower

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP)—Opening general debate in the United Nations assembly, Mexico's foreign minister Francisco Castillo Najera declared today that the use of the veto in the security council was undermining the unity of the organization and called for complete elimination of the big power veto right.

Castillo Najera spoke as a clash appeared to be developing between the U. S. and Russia over the rights of the assembly to discuss small nation proposals for ending the veto.

These reports brought from Guillermo Belt, chief Cuban delegate, a declaration that he was ready for a last ditch fight to bring the question before the assembly.

By John M. Hightower

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP)—A clash appeared to be developing today between the United States and Russia over the right of the United Nations General Assembly to discuss small nation proposals for ending the big power veto in the Security Council.

The American delegation, in a meeting today under the leadership of chief delegate Warren Austin, decided that it would insist upon the full right of the assembly to discuss this and two other issues listed on a provisional agenda now before the assembly's steering committee.

This means that the United States is preparing to argue for full discussion of a proposal which it intends in the end to be against. The delegation favors rejecting all efforts to eliminate the great power veto, and in this respect is lined up with Russia. But it intends to try to restrict use of the veto and on that point likely will be in disagreement with Russia.

Going Over Items

The steering committee, American informants said, is expected to meet late today or tomorrow to go over the list of 53 main items of assembly business which are supposed to come up once general debate, beginning today, is ended early next week.

In an informal meeting of the steering committee two days ago, Russian deputy foreign minister Andrei Vishinsky indicated — although American informants said he did not make it final — that Russia would oppose assembly discussions of:

1. Australian and Cuban proposals for ending the veto voting system by amending the charter.

2. A South African proposal for annexing the mandate of Southwest Africa. (The United States may or may not favor this project but thinks it should be discussed.)

3. A Canadian plan for limiting assembly debate to ten minutes per speaker and otherwise speeding up procedure. (The United States is reported opposed to the plan, but feels it should be permitted to come up in the meeting.)

Truman Opens Assembly

President Truman opened the assembly meeting here yesterday.

Mr. Truman disclosed the main lines of American policy on the veto issue in his speech. In it he also pledged that the United States "to the full light of its strength" would continue to work for a "just and lasting peace" and urged that the United Nations get on with the tasks of controlling atomic energy, suppressing mass destruction weapons and otherwise creating the conditions of peace.

The veto issue appeared certain to kick up a prolonged argument in the assembly's general debate, beginning today after U. N. secretary general Trygve Lie reports to the 51-nation body on the progress of the peace organization to date. Two full-dress sessions were scheduled — at 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. CST.

Cuba, Australia and the Philippines all have come out for ending the voting system by which any one of the Big Five powers — America, Russia, France, Britain and China — can block action in the security council.

Large Attendance At Smith-Cotton Last Monday Night

The first meeting this year of the Smith-Cotton Parent-Teachers Association held Monday evening in the school auditorium attracted a large crowd of parents, teachers and friends.

Following the regular transaction of business, presided over by Emery L. Ellsworth, president, reports were heard from the chairmen of the various committee.

Mrs. Cecil Glenn reported on the state convention of the Congress of Parent-Teachers held in St. Louis on October 15, 16 and 17, as representative of the local unit.

Mrs. Louis Isgur, chairman of the membership committee, reported the local unit had a membership of 945 members and more were expected to come in. She reported the junior class of the school had won the contest for bringing in more members. Ralph Waters, president of the junior class, was introduced to the large audience.

Officers Presented

The chairman then presented the officers for the year, who are Mrs. Leo Eickhoff, vice president; Rosco Ryckman, secretary; Mrs. Cecil Glenn, treasurer, and Rev. J. W. Watts, chaplain. Others presented were members at large, Mrs. M. E. Green; teachers, Miss Nellie White and Miss Mattie Montgomery; finance chairman, Mrs. L. C. Kennon; membership, Mrs. Louis Isgur; program, Charles Hanna; founders' day, Mrs. Lloyd Kirkpatrick; council representative, Mrs. Henry Menefee; social, Mrs. Kenneth Love, and student aid, Joe Benson, principal of Smith-Cotton.

Mr. Benson was welcomed back by the members, as this was his first meeting since entering the service in December, 1942. He responded with a few remarks and then introduced the new teachers.

Program by Orchestra

The Smith-Cotton high school orchestra, under the direction of J. T. lexander, director of music in the Sedalia public schools, presented the following program:

Dance of the Happy Spirits, from "Orpheus," by Gluck.

Minuet from the F Major Concerts by Handel.

Andante from the "Surprise Symphony," by Haydn.

Charles Hanna, program chairman, introduced Dr. William E. Knox, director of Division of Public Service, Central Missouri State Teachers College, Warrensburg, as the principal speaker of the evening.

Dr. Knox responded with a brief history of the growth of education, using as his subject "Education for All American Youth With Significance to Sedalia as You Think in Terms of a Municipal College."

Spoke on Education

Dr. Knox spoke relative to education in this country years ago, touching on the hardships they endured in getting a system started. He stressed the need for more education and more junior colleges. He made mention of the first free school in the year of 1821 and the first high school in Boston in 1821. "The small enrollment in the schools soon became large and more schools had to be built," said Dr. Knox.

The history of the building of the schools in the state of Missouri was reviewed by Dr. Knox, in which he pointed out the trials one often had to go through in order to get an education.

Refreshments Served

Announcement was made of the "Cavalcade of Stars" stage show to be held at Convention Hall on October 27th which is being sponsored by the Smith-Cotton P. T. A.

The next meeting of the P. T. A. will be on December 5th, according to announcment made at the meeting.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting in the school library, under the supervision of Mrs. Kenneth Love, social chairman, and Mrs. Leo Eickhoff, assisted by a number of the mothers.

Legion Meeting Tonight

Sedalia Post No. 242, American Legion, will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the Armory, with John VandeKamp, commander, presiding.

Final arrangements for Armistice Day program will be made at this meeting.

Communists Ask Investigation

NANKING, Oct. 24—(AP)—Emancipation Daily, mouthpiece of the Chinese Communist party, today asked the United Nations Assembly to organize a special committee to conduct an "on the spot" investigation into charges that American forces "are infringing China's territorial integrity and security."

The request, made in an editorial broadquest over the party's Yenen radio, demanded immediate withdrawal of all U. S. troops and of support to Chiang Kai-Shek's government.

The editorial declared the Chinese delegation to the U. S. assembly "represents Chiang Kai-Chek and his clique, not the Chinese people, who are not responsible for actions and words of Chiang Kai-Shek's representatives."

It asserted U. S. aid to Chiang's "civil war effort" totaled $4,000,000,000, which it said was four times the amount of U. S. aid to China during the Japanese war.

Sugar Shortage More Acute in Eastern States

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Why the acute sugar shortage? How long will it last? When will everybody get more sugar?

Here are answers. They come from the government's agriculture department.

The shortage is acute in the eastern states only. The reason: The maritime strike.

Those eastern states depend almost entirely upon sugar brought into this country from Cuba and Puerto Rico.

Ships loaded with about 60,000,000 pounds of sugar from those two countries are strike-bound in eastern harbors.

When they can be unloaded — and the steady flow of sugar is resumed — the acute shortage will end.

That is, just the acute shortage will end. There is a national shortage, but it is not so severe elsewhere as in the east now. Why?

Two Kinds of Sugar

Your table sugar comes from two kinds of sugar: Cane and beet sugar. Both are grown on the American mainland.

But what is grown here is not enough for us. It will provide only about 30 percent of our sugar needs.

So we have to import sugar to fill our needs. All that we import is sugar cane. We use up our own beet sugar. But still we can't get enough imports.

The beet sugar we use is grown in the middle western and western states. Those states, being close to the source of supply, use much beet sugar.

Right now, because of their nearness to the source of the beet sugar supply. Those middle western and western states are better off than the east which depends upon imports.

West Into Zones

OPA has divided the western part of the country into zones—for the distribution of beet sugar—but had put restrictions on the shipment of that kind of sugar into the strike-bound east.

An OPA official today said OPA would not lift those restrictions because OPA did not want to be put in the position of being a strikebreaker.

He said labor leaders in the eastern strike would blame the OPA for trying to break the trucking and maritime strikes.

At this time rationing in this country is intended to provide about 15 pounds of table sugar for each person a year. It's expected to stay that way at least until next April 1.

By that date this government will know pretty well how the supplies for 1947 will be. If they're better than in 1946, there may be an increase in the amount of table sugar all of us can get.

But why the national shortage and the rationing? Here's the story on that:

No Sugar From P. I.

Before the war this country used up about 7,000,000 tons of sugar a year. Of that total we grew about 1,500,000 tons in sugar beets and 400,000 in cane sugar.

The rest we imported, taking 1,000,000 tons alone from the Philippines.

But the Japanese ruined the Philippines' plantations. This year we not only got no sugar from the Philippines but had to send some there.

It may be several years before we start again to get sugar in any quantity from those islands.

In addition, we have to help other countries which are much worse off for sugar than we.

Java Cut Off

(Canada and the United Kingdom are the only two countries which have as much sugar as we.)

Java used to grow for export to other countries about 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 tons of sugar a year. The Japanese ruined those plantations, too.

So Java is one source of supply for other countries now cut off.

Further the production of European countries, which used to grow a lot of sugar beets, was badly banged up by the war. They're not back to normal.

Mother's Faith Remains Firm

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Mrs. Fred Bowers' faith that the Lord will make her 11-year-old son, ill with infantile paralysis, well again without medical aid remained firm today as she reported he was "100 per cent improved."

City health officials had told the boy's parents that he might not live unless he was placed in a respirator. They had urged that he be removed from his home to a hospital.

Ray Logan, city health commissioner, quarantined the home Monday. He said the boy, Philip Bowers, who was stricken 11 days ago, was having a hard time breathing and his legs appeared paralyzed.

Philip's father indicated he might consent to putting the boy in a hospital when informed by Logan of his scant chance to live if he was kept at home. But Mrs. Bowers insisted:

"I have never doubted for a minute prayer will save him."

The Rev. Fred Klings, pastor of the In the Name of Jesus church of which the Bowers are members, said his congregation are in "constant prayer" for the youth.

Kansas City Banker Dies

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—E. F. Swinney, 89, chairman of the executive committee of the First National Bank, died today after an illness of several weeks.

Nationally known as a banker, having served a year as president of the American Bankers Association in 1904, Swinney was a director in several large corporations and retained the position in some of them after he passed the age of 80, among them were the Loose-Wiles Biscuit company; the Southwestern Bell Telephone company and the Kansas City Southern Railroad.

He began his banking career in Fayette, Mo., in 1877. He came to Kansas City and took the job as cashier of the First National Bank in 1886, after working in banks at Rich Hill, Mo., and Colorado City, Tex. He became president in 1900, a position he held until 1927, when he became chairman of the board of directors. In 1941 he retired as chairman to become chairman of the bank's executive committee.

He was a native of Marysville, Va.

Vote to Accept Settlement

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP)—Members of the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association (CIO) here today voted, 1,549 to 93, to accept an agreement reached between the union and the companies and agents of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts as a basis of settlement of the strike which began October 1.

The New York vote, representing one of the largest local MEBA memberships in the country, was taken while MEBA members in other eastern and gulf coast cities also were scheduled to be voting.

All results are being sent to washington, D. C., a union spokesman said, for tabulation by the union's executive board. Meanwhile, the deadlock between ship operators and deck officers continued.

Artie Shaw Divorced

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The one-year marriage of Actress Ava Gardner and Band Leader Artie Shaw ended in divorce court today with her testimony that he "told me to leave—so I left."

The 23-year-old vivid brunette told the judge: "After a month of marriage his attitude changed. He became completely and utterly selfish."

AME Bishop Is Suspended

CINCINNATI, Oct. 24—(AP)—Rev Wallace M. Wright, spokesman for the Council of Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal church, said today the council had ordered the suspension of Bishop David H. Sims of Philadelphia on charges of "open rebellion."

Bishop Sims, head of the First AME district, and Bishop W. A Fountain of Atlanta, Ga., head of the Sixth AME district, were to have been tried by a church court here Tuesday on "rebellion" charges but the proceedings were halted after the defendant bishops obtained a federal court injunction restraining the trial.

Rev. Wright said "Bishop Sims was suspended because he has consistently gone into the courts to prevent his trial." He said there was no suspension action against Bishop Fountain "because the charges against him are not serious. Only that out of friendship has he defended Bishop Sims."

The council also ordered a special general conference of the church at Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 20-24, to consider the cases of Bishops Sims and Fountain, Rev. Wright said.

Ask Judge to Spare Youth

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 24—(AP)—Circuit Judge Casper Platt today considered pleas asking that he not impose a death sentence on Robert Beatty, 21-year-old farm youth, who has pleaded guilty to a charge of murdering Lois Nelson, his pretty 19-year-old girl friend.

Beatty's attorneys asked that his life be spared because "he is a psycho-neurotic and was under the influence of alcohol at the time of the stabbing." Miss Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Nelson, told the court they did not want Beatty to be sentenced to death, but recommended he be confined to an institution for life.

Miss Nelson was slain in a lovers' lane last Aug. 17. Assistant state's attorney John W. Unger said Beatty had signed a statement that he stobbed her seven times after she resisted his advances.

'Rich-Poor' Man Born in Kansas

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Oct. 24.—(AP)—William E. Kaegi, 80, who was found to have left an estate valued at $45,000 after dying in apparent poverty at City hospital in St. Louis July 28, was born and reared in Kansas.

A brother, Fred Kaegi, is a Leavenworth blacksmith. Two other brothers, George and Herb, and a sister, Miss Lucy Kaegi, live at Eudora, Kas.

Members of the family here said they knew Kaegi had some money.

In St. Louis yesterday, Public Administrator John P. Cullinane said investigators checking Kaegi's two-room apartment found a bank book listing an account of $2,445, cash totaling $286, and a key to a safe deposit box which contained $32,452 in stocks and $10,000 in bonds.

Kaegi was born at Eudora. When a young man he went to St. Louis, where he learned the barber business. He visited relatives here once a year.

Too Absurd For Comment

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—President Truman today described as absurd a reporter's question as to whether Attorney General Clark may be replaced by Senator Wheeler (S-Mont).

Wheeler was listed to see Mr. Truman after the president's news conference.

Mr. Truman also described as absurd a question as to whether Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson was resigning from the supreme Court.

Both reports, he said, were too absurd for comment.

Busy With Baptisms

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Although 1945 was a war year, navy chaplains were busier with baptisms than funerals.

Statistics released by the navy today showed the chaplains' corps that year conducted 12,501 marriage ceremonies, 15,088 baptisms, 14,951 funerals, gave 80,835 lectures and held 64,618 study classes.

The 407,577 divine services conducted by chaplains had an aggregate attendance of 32,603,684.

M. U. Team to Be Well Fed

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—A Colorado grown steer, which won the reserve grand championship at the American Royal Livestock show, soon will furnish a feast for the University of Missouri football team.

The 1,240 pound Angus, sold by Don Harkness of Golden, Colo., will be presented to the Tiger grid team by the American Meat Co., which paid $10.50 a pound for the animal.

It will be some time, however, before the not-so-recently meat hungry Tiger will feast on the beef. The steer will be taken to Columbia and presented to the team before the Southern Methodist game next Saturday.

It will then be flown to St. Joseph, Mo., for slaughter by the Dugdale Packing Co., officials of the firm said the meat should be properly aged by Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Eight thousand disabled veterans have applied for new automobiles under the government's "cars for amputees" program, but at the last count only 75 machines had been delivered.

The Veterans Administration announced today that about 5,650 applications have been approved, "less than 500" rejected and the remainder still under consideration.

Congress appropriated $30,000,000 to supply the cars at a maximum cost of $1,600 each.

Ticker Tape Loafed

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP)—Foods, rails and gold mines achieved a certain popularity in today's stock market while many leaders were neglected at moderately lower levels and dealings tapered to among the lightest since late August.

The ticker tape loafed after a fairly active opening with losses of fractions to a point or more predominated. Trends hardened subsequently with some carriers reflecting renewed hopes of a freight rate increase soon. Losses of fractions to 2 points or so persisted at the close but plus signs of as much were plentiful. Transfers for the full stretch were in the vicinity of 800,000 shares.

On the upside were Cudahy, South Porto Rico Sugar, American Sugar Refining, Pepsi-Cola, Southern Railway, Great Northern, Pennsylvania Railroad, Santa Fe, Hosestake Mining, Dome Mines, Firestone Tire, Phillips Petroleum, U. S Steel and Goodrich. Casualties were Union Pacific, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Douglas Aircraft, Schenley (on profit taking), American Distilling, American Woolen preferred, Dp Pont and Union Carbide.

Railway bonds improved.

Wheat Futures Down

CHICAGO, Oct. 24—(AP)—Selling which came mainly from eastern commission houses depressed wheat futures today. Prices were down as much as 3 cents at times and the market was not able to display much rallying strength.

A leading elevator sold corn contracts and the yellow cereal was weak throughout the session. The Agriculture Department reported the corn-hog feed ratio at 11.9 to 1, considered favorable for feeding corn to hogs, against 8.2 to 1 in the previous week.

November oats were a little stronger than other contracts, a result of the slow movement of this grain to markets.

Cash soybean prices dropped sharply. Best bid toward the close was $3.20 for October and November shipment. This was down about 25 cents from last night. Several buyers withdrew from the market. Soybean bookings totaled 300,000 bushels.

Wheat finished 1¼ to 2½ cents lower, January $2.03½, corn was 1¼ to 1½ cent lower, January $1.39 to $1.39⅛, and oats were ⅞ cent lower to ⅛ cent higher, November 82⅞c to 82¾c.

No Forecast From Truman

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—With the smiling observation that elec bets are against the law where he comes from, President Truman today declined to forecast the outcome of next month's congressional contests.

The President was asked at his news conference if he had made a wager with himself by placing his guess in a sealed envelope, as the late President Roosevelt used to do.

He smiled and said no.

Then a reporter wanted to know whether he was willing to make a bet.

The president commented that wagering on elections is contrary to the law of the State of Missouri.

For the third successive news conference Mr. Truman said he had no plans for making a speech in the congressional campaign.

A questioner asked if that meant he w 't going to speak for the democrats.

The President said he hadn't said he would not make a speech, but that he had no plans to make any speeches. He added that he expects to go home to Missouri to vote.

Sinatra and His Wife Meet

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Frank Sinatra and his wife, Nancy, estranged for several weeks, met apparently by accident in a night club, kissed and departed together early today. But as for a reconciliation . . .

The voice tuned up as comic Phil Silvers opened a new show. He sang "Going Home" in a surprise guest appearance, then spotted Nancy sitting at a table with friends. He rushed over, kissed her and joined the party.

A few minutes later they departed.

"Is everything settled? Are you announcing a reconciliation?" Frankie was asked as he hustled mink-coated Nancy into a cab.

"What's that?" he asked. "Oh . . . no, nothing is settled."

Tyrone Power and Annabelle Announce They Will Separate

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Tyrone Power and Annabella, whose seven-year marriage has often been described as one of Hollywood's happiest, have decided to separate, and close friends opined today that the reason probably was their war-time separation.

The announcement came from Power's studio (20th Fox), confirming rumors heard with increasing frequency in recent months. The couple telephoned the news from New York, where they met yesterday as the actor flew in from Miami to conclude a two-month flying tour through South America with Cesar Romero.

Power was discharged from the Marines less than a year ago as a flying first lieutenant, and their embrace before hundreds of cheering GIs when his ship docked was as fervent as any of his which, on the screen, have long made feminine hearts skip beats.

Gradual Change

But friends said a gradual change became noticeable in the succeeding months before his departure from Latin America.

Power, 32, is a member of a notable stage family. His father, Tyrone, Sr., was long a stage idol. Annabel, 34, is the former Suzanne Georgette Charpentier, French-born and the wife of Jean Murat, French actor, before she wed the bachelor Power. She has a daughter, Anna, 12, by Murat.

Power's studio said he would return here later this week, but that Annabella would remain in New York to do a play.

The Whittier Study class meeting will be postponed until November 1 because of the carnival October 25.

Red Cross Corner

They say that every kid has a moment of panic when he approaches the living room on Christmas morning, because he suddenly fears that it is all a fairy story and there won't be any bright tree and gaily wrapped presents but only the same walls and windows and furniture that were there the nigh before.

That must be much the same feeling with which patients in Army and Navy and veterans' hospitals face the thought of Christmas morning. They are, many of them, thousands of miles away from home, surrounded by the sterility of hospital wards. Even if they receive presents from home, they won't brighten things very much, because there's no tinsel and paint, no bright parcels, no children singing Christmas carols.

Imagine their surprise then when on Christmas Day, their wards are transformed by the magic wand of American Red Cross workers into real Christmas-at-home surroundings. They want to know at once whom they should thank. They're surprised to learn that for once, instead of grownups making Christmas for youngsters, young people have made this Christmas celebration possible for them.

Yes, the tray favors and menu covers which brighten their Christmas dinners, the Christmas tree ornaments, in some cases beautiful cellophane imitation stained glass windows which transform a ward into a church, in some cases small artificial Christmas trees where live ones are not practicable—all these things are made by members of the American Junior Red Cross in their school workshops to bring joy to hospitalized servicemen and ex-servicemen. And Christmas is not the only holiday so remembered. There are similar presentations of cheer-up trinkets for every holiday in the year.

In addition, there are gifts for hospital recreation rooms: ping-pong and checkerboards, ash trays, and magazine racks. There are gifts which aid in the comfort and recovery of the patients: crutches, bed-reading racks, slippers, and robes.

Yes, Christmas can be that "glad day of all the year" spoken of in the old carol, even to men flat on their backs. It only takes a little neighborliness of the kind fostred by the Junior Red Cross, and a little of the inegnuity for which Americans are noted.

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

FOR EXTRA SAFETY AND EXTRA MILEAGE THE NEW

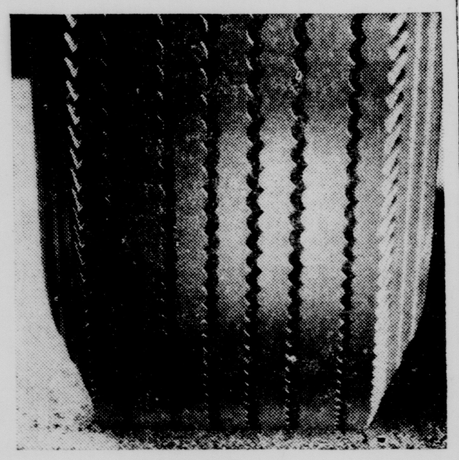

B. F. Goodrich Silvertown
IS WORTH THE WAIT

The new Silvertown tires have been setting records for long mileage, safety and economy not only on taxi fleets, police cars and special test cars but in regular car owner use.

These new tires are built with a broader, flatter tread that puts more rubber in contact with the road, spreading the wear over a larger area. To hold this heavier tread, B.F.Goodrich engineers developed a 35% stronger cord body with stronger cords and more of them... This meant better bruise resistance, greater safety.

If you want the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES, place your order today. A little wait will be rewarded with today's biggest money's worth in tires.

There's no getting away from it! When you have a good thing—word gets around—and FAST! And from our view, it seems everyone is demanding the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

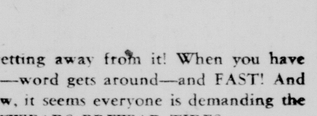

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles, else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Sharp Cut In Army Camps Announced

Over Score Of Big Measures In Economy Moves

By Edward Bomar

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—A sharp cut in the number of post-war army camps and other army posts was forecast Wednesday night by the war department in disclosing more than a score of major economy measures.

These measures were ordered as a result of directives from President Truman last August to lop a billion dollars from current military spending.

It was disclosed that Secretary of War Patterson and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower have decided on a policy of abandoning "installations that are not absolutely necessary or vital to the army."

However, in apparent wariness of protests from local interests and members of congress, the department withheld specific information as to which installations will get the axe.

Chief Economy Steps

The economy measures include:

1. Deferment of all permanent military housing construction in the United States and certain construction overseas

2. Reduction of supplies and services of seacoast defenses;

3. Reduction of military detachments for caretaking, and the number of civilian guards at inactive stations;

4. Consolidation of the field artillery and coast artillery schools—among others—along with reduction of facilities and number of students.

The department previously announced release of 53,000 civilian employes.

Installations to be closed down include some held in a standby status for possible use in the war department's universal military training plan, and for training National Guard and organized reserve units.

Also marked for disposal are small isolated posts which the army has long deemed unecomonical to man.

Summarizing economy measures already approved in response to inquiries, the war department told a reporter the number of posts to be abandoned would be substantial.

From a wartime peak 2,075, the number of active posts of all kinds already has been cut back to 827 since V-J day.

Permanent army housing to be deferred at least until after next June 30 includes 283 sets of quarters for offricers and first three grades of enlisted men for which congress provided nearly $6,000,000.

The status of temporary housing to cost an estimated $47,000,000 remains undetermined, officials said, as a result of last week's order by John R. Steelman, federal stabilizer, unfreezing $600,000,000 government construction of all kinds.

Only major economy measures applicable to all army activities were listed by the department.

Trimming Air Forces

Detailed trimming of air forces operation is under Gen. Carl Spaatz. Gen. Jacob L. Devers is handling it for the ground forces.

The air forces plans to finish setting up 70 operating groups by early 1947, but many may be only in skeleton form.

The ground forces are mustering out a number of units, closing and consolidating headquarters and may curtail next summer's field maneuvers.

Winter maneuvers in Alaska and Wisconsin are being carried out as scheduled. The National Guard, undertaking to create the framework of a 682,000-man force by next summer, thus far has largely escaped the economy act.

Additional approved economies listed by the war department include:

Reduction in the number of headquarters installations.

Curtailment of maintenance on structure and facilities.

Curtailment of civilian training programs.

Redistribution of training centers.

Deferment of domestic construction other than housing.

Consolidation of civilian personnel branches of certain administrative and technical services.

Elimination of headquarters of the replacement and school command.

Curtailment of a language and area training program.

Reduction in permanent changes of station and temporary duty travel.

Assigning part time duties to officers.

Reduction of war department printing and publication.

Reducing to one complete outfit the clothing retained by soldiers upon discharge.

The navy department also said in a statement today that it is "making every effort to reduce expenditures to a minimum without impairing our national security."

Its economies under the Presidential directive already taken will produce a saving of $600,000,000 this fiscal year, the navy said.

Huskers are Looking Like Old Times

Faurot is Worried Over His Saturday Starting Lineup

By Skipper Patrick

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—The University of Nebraska Cornhuskers, who are beginning to resemble the mighty 'Husker' elevens of pre-war years, have rather unique plans for their game with Indiana at Lincoln Saturday.

Smarting From a Licking

Smarting from lickings handed them by Minnesota and Iowa earlier this season, the Cornhuskers plan to make a deliberate attempt to upset their third Western Conference foe but not without passing in tribute to Indiana's great passing wizard, Ben Raimondi.

Raimondi will receive the A. R. Ruzulo trophy, given annually by the National Civic League to the nation's outstanding athlete of Italian ancestry, from the hands of Nebraska's Gov. Dwight Griswold.

The presentation to Raimondi and a good round of applause from an expected 36,000 fans, however, should just about wind up the welcoming activities.

Coach Bernie Masterson has his Huskers in good physical condition and a strong line and the running of Fullback Tom Novak and Halfback Dick Hutton could cause an upset at Lincoln Saturday.

Elsewhere Around the Loop

The Iowa State Cyclones were getting ready to entertain a crowd of 18,000 for their conference game with the powerful Oklahoma Sooners at Ames, Iowa, Saturday. Still nursing the bruised pride of a 144-7 last minute defeat by Oklahoma at Norman last year, Coach Mike Michalske's Cyclones will make a determined effort to pull a major upset.

Oklahoma will play without the Tyree and second string fullback services of regular end Jim Tyree and second string fullback Myrtle Greathouse, but otherwise the team that extended Army and came near beating Texas will be in good condition.

The Kansas Jayhawkers, who play Tulsa at Tulsa Saturday, faced a reserve team using the plays they expect to have run at them by the Hurricanes. The Kansas squad will arrive in Tulsa in time for a Saturday workout.

Coach Don Faurot of Missouri, getting his Tigers ready for their encounter with SMU at Columbia, was trying to make up his mind about a starting backfield. Faurot said he might move Tailback Bob Teel and Howard Bonnett, wingback, up to the first team because of their fine play last week and because regulars Bob Hopkins and Loyd Brinkman are in poor condition.

Kansas State has an open date, but Coach Hobbs Adams continued to put the Wildcats through stiff paces for their game with Iowa State at Manhattan Nov. 2.

Refugees Must Go Elsewhere

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Commending Attorney General Clark for staying the deportation of 18 Estonian refugees, President Truman expressed the hope today that immigration laws can be amended for the benefit of such persons.

Clark's action in the case of the Estonians, who sailed from Sweden to Miami, Fla., in a small fishing sloop, was announced just before a White House news conference. The group, lacking immigration visas, had been ordered to leave this country today.

Mr. Truman told newsmen he had not looked into the group's situation officially, but that he felt sorry for them. He said he had not talked to Clark about their plight.

He expressed hope that immigration laws can be amended so that political refugees may be provided for in proper cases. He emphasized that legislation will be required.

Clark directed the immigration service to try to arrange admission for the group to some country in this hemisphere, a justice department spokesman told reporters.

VFW May Permit Women to Join

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The Veterans of Foreifn Wars still bars women veterans—but there are signs of a weakening.

Louis E. Starr, V. F. W. commander-in-chief, told reporters yesterday that women veterans of the Spanish-American war—yes, there were some—were the first to agitate for membership in the VFW.

They were unsuccessful.

"Then the women veterans of World War I tried to get in," said Starr. "We kept 'em out.

"Now the women who served in World War II want in. During the war we said no. Now the World War II men are back and apparently many of them want to admit women as members."

Rev. James Parsons left for Kansas City to assist in installing Rev. Alexander Lewis as pastor of the First Congregational church there.

W. W. Blain and H. D. Dow delivered Republican speeches at Dresden to a good sized crowd Wednesday night.

The billboards at Fourth street and Lamine avenue, northwest corner, were removed today preparatory for the erection of a brick livery stable there by W. R. Frank, of Poplar Bluff, who recently purchased the lots there.

Mike Donohue, of Spring Fork, was in the city today on his way home from St. Louis, where he had two carloads of livestock on the market Wednesday.

Says Prohibition Is Coming

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 24—(AP)—Men's civic organizations across the country were accused Wednesday of serving as propaganda agencies for nationwide liquor interests.

In a speech to the Missouri Women's Christian Temperance Union, holding its state convention here, Mrs. Nelle G. Burger, state president, charged:

"A network of nationwide liquor propaganda through men's service and business organizations, x x x x clubs and others, has been brought to light through correspondence from various parts of the country," she said.

"Representatives of widely known distillers' organizations are attempting to prove the great economic 'benefits' of the liquor trade to the United States since repeal."

Mrs. Burger expressed confidence that the "Dry" cause was constantly winning supporters, and that "Prohibition is coming." She said the WCTU must redouble its efforts in this direction.

Churchill Sues, Alleges Libel

LONDON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Winston Chudchill sued Harper and Brothers, New York and London publishers, and author Louis Adamic today for libel, seeking damages for passages in Adamic's book "Dinner at the White House."

The suit also sought an injunction banning further publication and sale of the book, which was written arc d a White House dinner table conversation among President Roosevelt, Churchill, Adamic and other guests.

The libel writ listed no specific amount of damages, which in England are determined by a jury if it decides in favor of the plaintiff. The writ will be tried in the high court.

In his book Adamic described an hour and a half he and his wife spent at dinner at the White House on January 13, 1943 as the guest of the later President and Mrs. Roosevelt. He used his observations of Roosevelt and Churchill as a point of departure for a discussion of Soviet Socialism and British Imperialism in relation to U. S. policy.

Held for Higher Court

E. H. "Tony" Richards, 535 East Fifth street, arrested several days ago by the police, charged with breaking into the Calvert Coal Co., on East Fifth street, appeared before Megistrate W. E. Scotten, ex-officio justice of the peace, this morning and waived his preliminary hearing. Richards was bound over to the criminal division of circuit court. He is being held in the county jail pending his trial in the higher court.

Cut Surplus Of Workers In This Area

Increased employment and the return of many veterans to school has cut down by approximately 20 per cent the surplus of workers existing in the Sedalia and adjoining communities, the bi-monthly labor market report of the United States Employment Service for August and September shows.

Charles Jackson, Sedalia USES manager, said improved employment conditions also were reflected in a steady upturn of placements and job openings in the agency's local office. Job openings currently listed with the USES are too few in number and will not offset the present labor surplus until the spring of 1947, when it is anticipated that new and expanding industries will absorb a large part of the 1,624 persons now unemployed. This figure is not alarming considering that it covers an area employing 25,580 persons. The tragic part of it, Jackson said, is that 74 per cent of the unemployed are veterans of World War II, the men and women that are entitled to the best this community can afford them in the way of gainful employment.

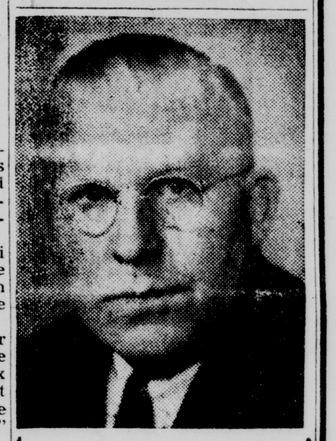

Greater Number Veterans

About 80 per cent of the worker surplus is male and 74 percent of the male surplus represents veterans. While the male surplus continues, there persists a noticeable shortage of women available, particularly for the garment and shoe industries and for stenographic and clerical positions. In the male group, there is a shortage of construction workers such as bricklayers, carpenters, cement finishers and automobile mechanics.

While construction has not reached the gear expected, housing for veterans and public works in some localities have taxed the limits of local labor supplies. This is especially true in Columbia, Marshall and other college areas.

Shortage of housing accommodations and lack of transportation continue as formidable obstacles in the placement of many workers who are qualified for job openings, the USES manager said, although some of the highly skilled and professional workers are accepting referrals to jobs in the other areas within and outside the state after failing to find suitable work locally.

Oxford Grad Directs Search for Jewels

By Ed Creagh
(For Hal Boyle)

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A dapper, thin-lipped Oxford graduate who looks more like a prosperous broker than a policeman, is directing the international search for the stolen jewels of the Duchess of Windsor.

But Ronald Martin Howe, Britain's "top cop," is far from being the well-meaning amateur that a careless crook might take him for. He has investigated personally every kind of case from dockside slayings to Irish Republican army bombings.

"He is one of the best informed police experts in the country, and, incidentally, about the best dressed man at Scotland Yard," said a close associate.

Police Expert

"He is one of the best informed police experts in the country and, incidentally, about the best dressed man at Scotland Yard," said a close associate. Howe himself, publicity-shy, like most British law enforcement officers, does not give interviews.

Forty-eight years old and unmarried, Howe has been head of the Yard's criminal investigation department—at 1,750 pounds ($7,000) a year—since early last year, taking the job as Britain's greatest crime wave of the century was beginning.

Groomed for the job by his predecessor, Sir Normal Kendall, Howe knows at first hand the stamping grounds of international criminals—London's gaudy Mayfair, the dens of Paris, the less reputable parts of New York's East Fifties.

He has chased in a squad car, and captured, smash and grab bandits preying on London suburbs. As deputy assistant commissioner he cleared his desk of papers and went looking for a Christmas Eve murderer in 1938. He got his man.

Studied in New York

Two years earlier he spent six weeks as a "pupil" of the New York police department. What impressed him most was the extensive use the Americans made of radio in catching crooks. Scotland Yard now has an intricate radio network of its own.

Howe holds an honors degree in Greek Literature from Oxford and was a lawyer before he went into police work. His college career was interrupted by the first world war. He joined the army as soon as he was old enough and won the military cross in France.

He directed last February's comb-out of Central London in which thousands of persons were stopped by squads of policemen and detectives and required to give an account of themselves. Sixty arrests were made in three days and fur and jewel thefts dropped sharply.

It was easy enough to steal the Duchess' jewels, the police say, but disposing of them will be something else again. Howe makes no promises, but it will surprise the British public if he doesn't have a squad car waiting when the thieves attempt to sell them.

Nice Profit at Notion Supper profit of $107.41 was made at a notion supper held at Harmony school Friday night. The program was presented by the school and special music of old time "fiddlin'" by Birtle Huff of Versailles.

Various contests were held, such as a box of powder for the most popular girl, a toy for the biggest baby, and a jar of pickles for the most love-sick couple. The last contest alone netted $23.

A bazaar was held where articles were sold that were made by the ladies of the district. This also brought $23. Coffee and sandwiches were also donated and sold as refreshments.

Examination Check Cancer Throat

By William A. O'Brien, M. D.
Whitten for NEA Service

When a woman discovers changes which may indicate cancer in her breast, she should consult a physician at once and not wait to see if it will go away. Cancer of the breast starts as a growth of cells which forms a hard lump in the interior or on the surface of the organ.

It is uncommon for women to develop breast cancer before 26, as most of the growths in the young are harmless. Women past this age are urged by the American Cancer Society to examine their breasts at regular intervals for signs of the disease. This can be done on the same day each month, in front of a mirror.

Chief warning sign is a lump. The normal breast is lumpy if grasped between the fingers, but if it is pressed against the chest wall with the flat of the hand, the soft lumps disappear and only hard lumps are felt.

Early Removal Advised

When a lump is discovered, a physician may have difficulty in deciding whether it is benign (harmless) or cancerous. The patient is then requested to enter a hospital for removal of the lump and its examination under the microscope. When women report suspicious lumps promptly, approximately half prove to be benign.

Growths within the breast can cause a contraction of the organ so that it is elevated. Attachment of the growth to the skin may cause dimpling when the skin is moved about.

Normal nipples usually extend from the breast for a short distance. If they pull in, bleed, or become discolored, it means trouble and a physician should be consulted. A peculiar form of breast cancer which resembles inflammation is sometimes seen in which the surface of the breast is discolored and hot. Usually there is associated trouble in the nipple.

Pain Is Rare

Pain is rarely a sign of breast cancer. Painful breasts are seen in nervous women and in those who have benign conditions.

When breast cancer is limited to its place of origin, the chance for cure following surgical removal is excellent, but spread beyond the breast decreases the chance for ultimate cure. Physicians use the X-ray in place of surgery or in addition to it, in selected cases.

The attitude of women will largely determine the outcome of the cancer control program. If they report breast disease promptly, they will benefit from peace of mind if they do not have cancer, and from a better chance of cure if they do.

QUESTION: What causes lipomas to appear? Can they be cured?

ANSWER: Lipomas are localized growths of fat which can be cured by surgical removal.

Lovelace Has Pie Supper

The Lovelace school had a pie supper Wednesday night, October 16. A large crowd attended and $163.07 was taken in. John Ryan was the auctioneer for the evening.

The program was opened by Maxine and Homer, of K. D. R. O., playing and singing several numbers. Following their program, the school children presented a short program under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. George Knox. Children who participated were: Mary Margaret Eads, Jesse Closser, Marvin Woods, Velma Potter, Buddy Theirfelder, Sonny Theirfelder, Beulah Arnold, Frances Siegel, John Blaylock, Eugene Eads, Patricia Jo Maples, Shirley Closser, Carol Wood, Harry Closser, Earnest Potter, Ronnie Blaylock and Madeline Eads.

Divorce Is Petitioned

A petition for divorce was filed in circuit court Wednesday by Mrs. Elsie M. Gilbert against Virgil W. Gilbert. It states the couple was married on June 27, 1928 and one child has been born to the union, William Lewis Gilbert, aged 12 years.

The plaintiff asks for custody of the child, court costs and alimony in the form of support and maintenance of herself and also for support, maintenance and education of child.

2. BETTER TASTE . . . New KC assures full flavor of other ingredients—in your baked goods you get no soda taste from KC.

3. BETTER FOR YOU, TOO . . . KC makes everything you bake with it a valuable source of FOOD CALCIUM—adding 2 to 5 times more FOOD CALCIUM than the fresh milk used in a baking, depending on the recipe. Thus KC joins milk as a fine source of this vital food element.

How to plan food for your Hallowe'en party

If what to serve at your Hallowe'en party is a problem, then here are some ideas that may be helpful to you.

HALLOWE'EN BUFFET SUPPER

*Red-Hot Poker Roast
Red Cabbage, Green Grape and Almond Salad
in Pumpkin Shell Salad Bowl
(Use pumpkin for pies, afterward)
Toasted Finger Rolls
*Mocha Gingerbread with Orange Cream Cheese Frosting
Coffee

*Recipe below.

RED-HOT POKER ROAST—Arrange 16 to 24 frankfurters side by side (allowing 2 frankfurters for each person); run string through top and bottom. Broil frankfurters; then tie them, curved side in, around mound of potato salad; press into salad so that it resembles a crown roast. Cut string to serve.

MOCHA GINGERBREAD with ORANGE CREAM CHEESE FROSTING—To a package of prepared gingerbread mix add 1 cup cold coffee and ½ cup pecans. Pour into an 8-inch square cake pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 45 minutes, or until done. To make frosting: Mash two 3-ounce packages of cream cheese with 2 tablespoons orange juice and ½ teaspoon orange rind. Stir in ½ to 1 cup sifted powdered sugar. Add a few drops of orange food coloring for a brighter color and more powdered sugar if a thicker frosting is desired.

MFA Approves Expense Bill

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The Missouri Farmers Association legislative committee recommended today that farmers vote for a proposed constitutional amendment to give legislators $5 a day expenses.

The amendment proposal will be the only one on the Missouri ballot in the November 5 general election. If approved expenses would be paid to members of the 63rd general assembly and future sessions for each day of actual attendance.

Support for the proposal was announced in the Missouri farmer, MFA magazine, with the committee predicting "the tendency will be to attract high calibre men to these important public offices and in addition the extra expense money will tend to discourage absenteeism."

Without expense money, the legislative salary of $125 a month "is not much of an inducement for competent men to serve," the committee said.

Construction Levelling Off

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Construction activity "began to level off" in September, after a steady rise since the end of the war, the bureau of labor statistics reported today.

Both employment — 2,307,000 workers—and expenditures last month were slightly below August figures. The outlay for actual work put in place was $1,243,000,000.

Home construction shared in the decline from August, which was the best month since VJ day. Building and repair of private, non-farm homes amounted to $359,000,000, with 720,000 workers employed.

Commercial building declined about $11,000,000, but industrial and other types of construction picked up.

In the first nine months of this year $8,500,000,000 was spent for construction, more than double the figure for the same months of 1945.

Cornstalks, wheat straw and sugar cane stalks are made into paper, corrugated fiber-board and building boards.

Within 20 years after its introduction, soybean production in the United States reached 200,000,000 bushels in 1945.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-Round

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 — Reports that a small number of atomic bombs had been sent to northern England for stockpiling brought a flood of diplomatic denials from high U. S. sources It is significant, however, that the British said little. Instead, they sent a very interesting figure to the United States.

He is Brigadier Menzie, top intelligence man of all England. Menzie is head of M5 (British military intelligence), M6 (British military-political intelligence) and M12 (British Russian intelligence). Reason for his hurried trip to the United States was to plug leaks.

Since England was a partner in producing the A-bomb and since Canada, the third partner, supplied the uranium, it would seem that they were entitled to a share in the final result. Nevertheless, the decision to send a small quantity of A-bombs to England was so closely guarded that it was known only to about six top men in the USA. In that connection it is significant that very few civilians, even in the cabinet, know much of the whereabouts or numbers of the A-bomb. This was illustrated during a cabinet session shortly before Harold Ickes retired as secretary of the interior.

Ickes, who has a habit of speaking his own mind, said he understood that no civilian in the United States knew where the A-bombs were kept. All the bombs, he said, were in the hands of the military, a situation which he described as dangerous in that it might set the stage whereby a group of brass hats could take over the country merely by issuing an ultimatum.

Secretary of the Navy Forrestal took exceptions to this, whereupon Ickes asked:

"Do you know where the A-bombs are kept?"

Forrestal admitted that he did not.

"Do you know where the A-bombs are kept?" continued Ickes, turning to Secretary Patterson, the head of the army.

Patterson replied that he did not know.

Ickes then asked President Truman if he knew where the atomic bombs were located. Again the answer was in the negative.

Note — In the opinion of this columnist, few military men have civilian welfare more at heart than General Eisenhower and Admiral Nimitz, present leaders of the army and navy forces. Not all the Army-Navy brass share their views, however, and a civilian board will soon take over complete control of the atom.

Missouri Chicken Lays Egg

Commodore Jake Vardaman, one of the original Missourians whom Truman rewarded with a cushy 14-year job on the Federal Reserve Board, is now fulfilling some of the dire prophecies which his critics made about him. He has been sounding off against the anti-Wall Street speculation policies of his chief, Federal Reserve Board Chairman Marriner Eccles. Result has been dissension on a board which has the delicate job of guiding U. S. fiscal policy.

Vardamann, son of the late Senator Vardamann of Mississippi, moved to Missouri where he was none too successful in business and later affixed himself to the Truman entourage as naval attache. In Washington he distinguished himself by drafting several enlisted men to paint and repair his house on government time. Later, when Truman appointed him to the Federal Reserve Board, Vardamann's navy record mysteriously disappeared from the files and was not available to senatorial inquiries during debate on his confirmation.

Now that he has been confirmed by the senate, Vardamann has been making speeches criticizing the no-speculation policy of his chief. Eccles has forbidden stock market investors to buy on margins. They have to buy stocks outright. Many economists pay tribute to this policy, say it was why the investing public took the recent stock market slump without a financial debacle.

Vardamann, however, has been sounding off not only against this no-margin policy but also against the Federal Reserve Board's restrictions on installment buying. He seems to want to go back to the wildcat days of Herbert Hoover.

How long Chairman Eccles will take this from the Mississippi gentleman from Missouri remains to be seen. Son of a wealthy Mormon pioneer who had as many wives as he had banks, Eccles is a former Utah businessman and is considered one of the soundest economists of the New Deal. If he gets sore and steps off the Reserve Board it will be a serious blow to Truman.

Capital Chaff

Comrade Molotov has told advisers that he favors admitting the press to all sessions of the U. N. general assembly, even to committee meetings. He says the newspapers get part of the story anyway and they might as well get it all at the very start. . . . Herbert Hoover, who confers frequently with Tom Dewey, takes credit for advising him to increase President Truman's 100,000 refugee figure on Jewish migration. "After all," remarked Hoover to a friend, "Dewey's not president, he's only governor of New York, and the statement could win him a few thousand votes." He was referring to the fact that Truman proposed the admission of 100,000 refugees into Palestine, while Dewey followed him two nights later with a proposal that several hundred thousand be admitted. . . . Though we only recently talked of a credit to Russia, the state department soon will do the reverse. It will present Russia with a lend-lease bill of four billion dollars in cash. This is about three and a half billions more than we charged the British. We scaled British lend-lease to $650,000,000 and then loaned them around three billions.

Wets Submerge Drys

A knockdown-dragout fight is shaping up between the wets and drys on the question of local option.

First round was fought recently in Wichita county, Texas, which voted to return to the wet column in a local-option referendum. The same county voted dry in 1942.

However, with a committee of war veterans spearheading their campaign, the wets won by a majority of 1,359 out of a total vote of 16,000. It is significant that more votes were cast in this referendum than in any other political election in the country's history.

Wets are now hailing this as a great victory, for Wichita Falls, county seat of Wichita, Texas, was the largest city in the nation to go dry since repeal.

Next big headon clash between the wets and drys will be in Chicago, where more than 60 precincts will vote on liquor local option Nov. 5.

Merry-Go-Round

Secretary of State Byrnes looks fairly fit despite the terrific wear and tear of the Paris peace conference. His wire-haired terrier, "Whiskers," was rushed to the veterinarian, however. . . . The new solicitor of the department of commerce, Adrian Fisher, is a Felix Frankfurter protege. . . . Former Commander Joel Fisher of the coast guard, the man who captured two billion dollars of Nazi gold in Europe, is to be chief assistant to Housing Czar Wilson Wyatt. . . . Supreme Court Justice Bob Jackson disqualified himself from sitting in the Hatch Act constitutionality case because he was attorney general at the time it was passed. . . . Incidentally, the Hatch case may provide the first clue on the voting of able new Chief Justice Fred Vinson. . . . Democratic party press agent Sam O'Neal and Republican party press agent Bill Murphy are fighting it out publicly, but still play golf together on weekends.

THE STORY: Back in New Haven, after the announcement of the engagement, Gayle finds herself a celebrity. Discussing plans for her new home, she upsets the architect by insisting that the cook have a large room and bath next to the kitchen.

XVII

AS the end of the term approached, neither Gayle nor Rose paid much attention to their work at the Art School; indeed, Gayle wondered at times why she had ever thought it necessary to finish the term at all. The wedding was set for the third week in June, and she was going to have a frighteningly short time in which to get ready for it. She had made a brief weekend visit to Sycamore to discuss the wedding plans with Mrs. Bartlett, who obviously was disappointed in Gayle's ideas. She seemed a little warmer than on Gayle's first visit, but she was still royalty making a decision.

"Bruce has a great many friends," she objected. "Will the Calvin College chapel hold them all? And is your home adequate for the reception?"

"I'm afraid," said Gayle quietly, "that the answer is no to both questions. Evidently I didn't explain very well. I don't happen to want a big wedding, and even if I did, my father couldn't afford it. I'm going to invite only a few friends. Some of my sorority sisters may be offended, but I can't help that. And Bart will be able to invite only a few. There's no place in Calvin to hold a mob, anyway. And we're not planning on a reception, Mrs. Bartlett. I wouldn't put my father to that expense for anything. I want a real wedding in a church, but it's got to be as simple as possible."

With the greatest delicacy Mrs. Bartlett hinted that every difficulty would be evaded if the wedding were held at Sycamore. Mr. Bartlett's health would be ample excuse, and it would distress him greatly if he weren't able to be present—and, of course, a trip to Calvin was for him entirely out of the question.

"I KNOW," Gayle agreed. "I want him to be there. You don't know how much I want him to be, but we couldn't count on him, no matter where the wedding was held. If he was having one of his bad days, he couldn't come, anyway. Besides, it's my parents' privilege to have the wedding at home, and nothing would make me rob them of it." She felt quite self-possessed and without fear. Sycamore wasn't nearly so awesome on a second visit, and somehow Mrs. Bartlett wasn't awesome at all. She was simply a stranger attempting to usurp privileges that belonged to the Kents, and Gayle had no intention of surrendering a single one. If Jimmie had been present, he would have said, "Gayle's back is up. Look out, lady."

Still courteous, still regal, Mrs. Bartlett persisted. Equally courteous, and not regal at all, Gayle stepped backward not an inch. "She can't run my life," she thought stubbornly, "and she might as well find it out right now." In the end the arrangements were left exactly as she and her mother had planned them.

She had two happy visits with Mr. Bartlett. His health, he said, seemed actually to be improving, though he was sensible enough to have little faith in the improvement. "Just the same," he said, "I'm not suffering as much, and that's something to be thankful for. Are the wedding plans all settled?"

"Yes." She told him how sorry she was he couldn't be present. Then she said, "I'm afraid Mrs. Bartlett is disappointed. She wanted something much grander, but I don't want to be grand. I'll have to be, I suppose, when I'm Mrs. Bruce Bartlett; but I'll be Gayle Kent until the wedding is over, and so I want a Kent wedding."

"Of course. And don't worry about my wife. She will accept the situation gracefully."

"I KNOW." Then Gayle took her courage in both hands and said something she had wanted for some time to say. "I'm awfully afraid, though, she's more disappointed in me even than she is in the wedding plans. I don't think I'm the kind of girl she wanted Bart to marry."

"You're wrong there, my dear." Mr. Bartlett was surprisingly definite. "I'm glad you said that, because you've given me a chance to say something I think ought to be said. Nell approves of you. She thinks you have style and dignity, and they mean a great deal to her—more than you might imagine. Just give her time. She isn't a woman who can show affection easily, and she's deeply upset about Bruce. His marriage is a great shock to her."

"A shock?" Gayle stared at him incredulously.

"Yes; I don't think that's too strong a word."

"Doesn't she want him to get married at all?"

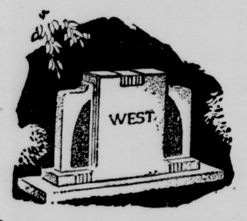

"Theoretically, yes—actually, I don't know. You've got to understand her devotion to Bruce, Gayle. It's all-consuming, and she's always felt that she was first with him. It isn't going to be easy for her to move into second place. I don't think it's easy for any mother, but it will be doubly hard for Nell." He smiled. "But once the wedding is over, she will accept the situation as gracefully as anyone could, and if there is a grandchild—" he paused and his smile deepened—"she will be the most devoted grandmother in the world. What's more, as the mother of Bruce's child, you'll be just as precious to her as he is. Give her time, Gayle. This isn't easy for her."

Gayle relaxed so suddenly that she felt weak. "You don't know how much better you've made me feel," she told him, sighing; "you just don't know."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Wallace To West For Speaking Tour

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace, former Secretary of Commerce, left by plane for Los Angeles Wednesday to open a seven-state political speaking campaign.

He told reporters he was going to "try to elect progressive Democratic congressmen" in the balloting Nov. 5.

Asked whether he would discuss foreign policy he said "I don't know as to that."

It was differences with the administration on foreign policy that got him fired from the cabinet.

Probably the first tooth extraction with nitrous oxide, or laughing gas, was made in 1844.

More Officer Suicides Than Enlisted Men

Many Doctors and Nurses Also Killed Themselves

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The suicide rate of World War II officers was twice that of enlisted men, and the number of doctors and nurses who killed themselves was far out of proportion.

Those are among the findings in an army institute pathology report based to the studies of 1,179 suicides and 656 homicides among army personnel.

Captain Normal Zamcheck, now with the Harvard medical school, and Murray A. Geisler, an institute statistician, said many of their findings tended to support trends among civilians. For instance:

About four times as many soldiers over 40 years committed suicide as did those between 20 and 29. Civilian statistics show that the suicide rate between 40 and 50 is from two to three times that between 20 to 29.

Also army suicides were more frequent in the morning, reaching a peak between 7 and 8 o'clock. This was ascribed in part to sleepless nights of worry. Thus after a person has started the day's work, the impulse to self-destruction slackens. The peak on Sunday was from 9 to 11 a. m., probably due to the later rising hour.

Many on Blue Monday

However, Sunday accounted for the lowest number—141 out of the 1,179. "Blue Monday" accounted for 151. Thursdays and Saturdays tied for high with 167.

The report ascribed the higher rate among officers to greater age and responsibilities and said the probable reason for the large number of suicides among doctors and nurses was their familiarity with and access to poisons and lethal drugs.

The 656 homicide cases studied presented a picture in some respects almost opposite to that of suicides.

The maximum age of homicide victims was between 20 and 30. And the rate among officers was only one-third that of enlisted men.

The majority met death after 6 p. m., with the largest number between 11 p. m. and midnight.

Sixty per cent occurred in course of fights and 42 per cent of the victims were negroes.

Uphold Right To Present Views

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24—(AP)— An employer accused of unfair labor practices is "not required to stand mute" because of the National Labor Relations Act and has the right of free speech to defend himself and maintain his employes' loyalty, the U. S. circuit court of appeals ruled here Wednesday.

In an unanimous decision, the court denied an NLRB request for enforcement of a directive against Montgomery Ward and Co., Inc., of Kansas City, Mo., and upheld the company's right to present its views to employes before an NLRB collective bargaining election in Kansas City.

The opinion also refused to order the company to rehire six employes which the NLRB accused it of firing because of union activities and specifically exonerated the company of anti-union motives in the firings.

The court asserted one organizer defaced company furniture by pasting union propaganda on it, another fought on the premises and neglected his work, and a third was no longer needed because his specialized work was completed and none has been done since his discharge.

Three others, it said, refused to fill mail orders from Chicago during a union strike there although the Kansas City employes were not involved.

The issue of free speech was involved by a talk delivered to the 1,600 Kansas City employes by James A. Barr, labor relations manager of the company, Jan. 4 and 5, 1944, prior to an NLRB election to select a collective bargaining representative on Jan. 11.

Kill Thirty-Eight On Destroyer

LONDON, October 24—(AP)—An admiralty spokesman told commons Wednesday 38 British sailors were killed and 45 injured in two not entirely explained explosions which blew bows off the destroyers Saumarez and Volage while they were a mile and a half from the Albanian coast yesterday.

"Yes sir," answered John Dugdale, financial secretary to the admiralty, when Winston Churchill asked "is this the same channel where our cruisers were fired on by the Albanian batteries some months ago?"

Dugdale said the first destroyer, the Saumarez, a 1,650-ton veteran of the sinking of the German battleship Scharnhorst in the Arctic in 1943, was "believed to have hit a mine" in the Corfu channel.

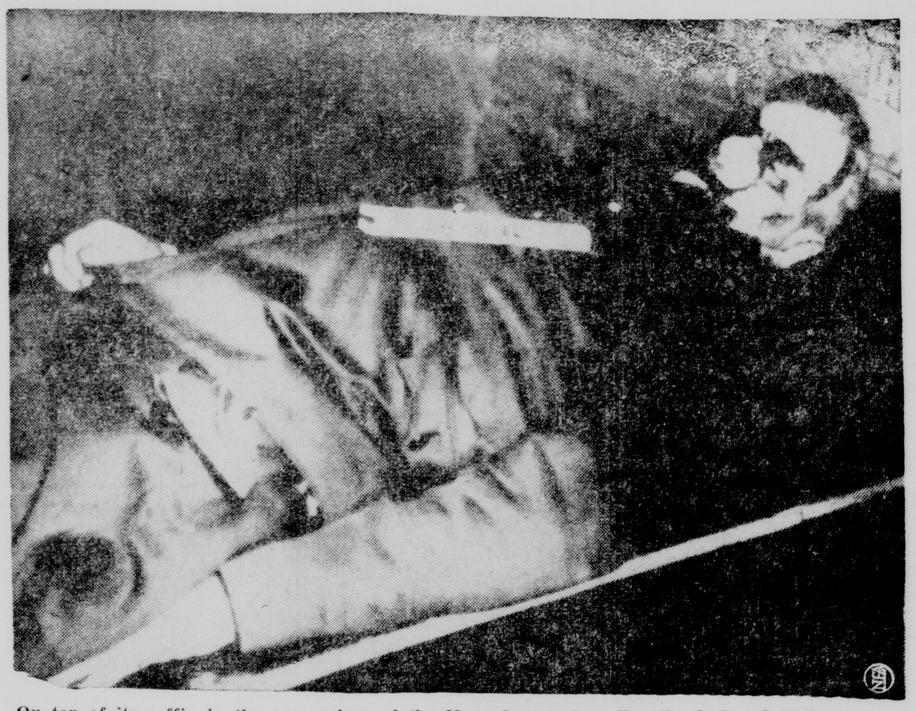

Of the 1,710-ton Volage, damaged nearly two hours later while towing the Saumarez, Dugdale said only, "there was an explosion."

He added, that both warships had reached the Greek Island of Corfu, and that an admiralty board was investigating.

Eleven Federal Suits Dismissed

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—Judge Albert Ridge Wednesday dismissed federal suits charging 11 Missouri grocery stores and locker services with violation of OPA regulations.

The suits were dismissed on the motion of the OPA attorneys in line with President Truman's order removing price control from meat. All 11 cases had requested injunctions against further violation of price control.

Dick F. Bennett, head of the OPA enforcement division, said suits involving damages or requesting license suspensions would not be dismissed.

The cases dismissed were against Spence Locker Service, Unionville; Pete Jundy, Hickman Mills; a Safeway grocery, at Higginsville and one at Lexington; Atlantic and Pacific grocery store at Higginsville; Liberty Locker Plant, Liberty; Dale's Market, Harrisonville; Kroger grocery, Toby's Market, Troost Avenue Market, and Kahn's Market all in Kansas City.

Grant Permit To Buy Planes

Ninety Fighters In Surplus Lot Go To Sweden

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—With the blessing of state and war department officials, Sweden was granted permission Wednesday night to purchase 90 American army fighter planes now listed as surplus.

A state department spokesman said the state-war-navy departments, coordinating committee had approved the sale of the P-51 Mustangs to the war time neutral after several months of consideration.

Swedish legation officials said the planes would be used to strengthen Sweden's efforts to trace the mysterious "rockets" reported over the country in recent months.

The Mustangs are 400-mile-an hour planes used effectively by the American army air forces during the war.

State department officials said they presumed the planes would be sold complete with machine guns, despite regulations which forbid sale of "military type" surpluses except in "exceptional cases."

Production To Check Inflation

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24—(AP)— Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder predicted Wednesday that danger of runaway inflation will have been avoided if civilian production continues at current high levels for another six months.

The cabinet member told a reporter "installation of telephones, car loadings, mail volume and electric power consumption all indicate rapidly increasing business and industrial activity."

The chances for achieving a balanced federal budget by the end of the fiscal year, next June 30, also "look very good at this time," said Snyder, who was here for a Chamber of Commerce dinner in his honor.

He warned, however, that "another round of strikes," lowering production, or higher prices, would interfere with what he termed an otherwise optimistic economic outlook.

Spending Be Over Limit Set

President States Amount Reach $165,000,000 Over Sum Planned

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—President Truman announced tonight that federal spending for civilian public works this fiscal year will exceed the $900,000,000 limit he set last August by $165,000,000.

Mr. Truman's statement also said that no further military spending cutbacks "are under consideration at this time."

The President recalled that in August the overall federal public works program had been cut from $1,600,000,000 to $900,000,000, requiring a saving of $700,000,000.

He said further study of this program by Reconversion Director John R. Steelman and Budget Director James E. Webb "has indicated the necessity for increasing the expenditure limitation for the war department corps of engineers from $95,000,000 to $130,000,000, with an additional limited provision for new projects approved (by Steelman), and for the department of interior reclamation program from $85,000,000 to $110,000,000."

These increases previously had been announced by the budget bureau.

Mr. Truman said that these hikes, together with an increase of $13,000,000 for the Tennessee Valley authority and $5,000,000 for the agriculture department, "are the only increases in the expenditure limitation on federal construction projects which have been authorized to date."

"Unavoidable Revisions"

He added that "were it not for increases in programs over which I have no authority to place limitations, a saving of $630,000,000 would be made good."

This compares with an original goal of $700,000,000.

"In those programs on which I could not impose a limitation, such as public roads grants and rural electrification loans, current expenditure estimates are up $95,000,000," Mr. Truman said.

"Despite these unavoidable revisions, our savings on non-military public works will be $535,000,000 below the January budget estimates."

The January estimate was $1,600,000,000. Thus Mr. Truman indicated expenditures of $1,065,000,000, compared with the $900,000,000.

As for military spending, the President noted that on August 1 he placed an overall expenditure limitation of $8,000,000,000 on the war department, "thereby requiring a saving of $1,000,000,000."

Also at that time, Mr. Truman recalled, he ordered a $5,150,000,000 limitation for the navy, requiring a saving of $650,000,000 this fiscal year.

"These limitations have not been changed," Mr. Truman said, "and no further military cutbacks for the fiscal year 1947 are under consideration at this time."

President May Enter Campaign

Asserts Crisis In Coal Situation Being Handled By Secretary Krug

By D. Harold Oliver and Harold W. Ward

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—President Truman refused today to be drawn into an immediate showdown with John L. Lewis, but political aides speculated that the coal crisis may yet prompt him to plunge into the current election campaign at the eleventh hour.

At a news conference, the President had no comment on Lewis' implied threat of a walkout by his 400,000 soft coal miners on Nov. 1—four days before the congressional elections. Mr. Truman said the matter was being handled by Secretary of Interior Krug, boss of the government seized mines.

In response to other questions, the President did not close the door to activ participation in the political wars, merely reiterating that he had no speaking plans at this time.

Democratic leaders, who cannot be named, told reporters later that the question whether the chief executive will do any campaign speaking depends on developments within the next four or five days.

They did not elaborate on this, but politicians expressed belief that if the coal crisis continues, the President may decide to take the stump.

The strike threat, it was agreed, poses a difficult political problem. In addition to its possible effect on consumers, there is the question on whether the row may sway miners' votes. The miners, politicians said, could swing many a close race in coal-producing states, especially West Virginia and Kentucky, where hot senatorial as well as house contests are being fought.

Meanwhile, other Democrats were busy figuring how the election may go. Senator Wheeler (D-Mont), defeated for renomination, told newsmen after a conference with the President that "there is a Republican trend" in the far west and that congressional races throughout the country will be "close all through the list."

He added, however, that the Democrats in Montana, Washington and California should win on the basis of present registrations.

"The big silent vote," he said, "will hold the answer to these elections, and no one can tell what is going to happen. A lot of people are not talking."

Senator Pepper (D-Fla), on the other hand, said a nationwide tour has convinced him that the Democrats will retain control of congress "by a good margin," although he spoke of "defeatism" among Democrats.

"The greatest danger I have seen for the Democratic cause in this election," he wrote Democratic national committeemen, "is the sense of defeatism which the opposition has been able to instill in certain quarters through one of the shrewest propaganda campaigns ever employed in American politics."

James L. Wright, veteran correspondent of the Buffalo Evening News, brought up the campaign at today's White House news conference. He reminded Mr. Truman that the time was running short before the Nov. 5 elections and asked about speaking plans.

As in the last four interviews, the President replied he had no campaign plans.

"Why are you not going to speak for the Democrats this year?" another reporter asked.

The chief executive replied he had not said he would not speak, merely that he had no present plans.

Poisoned Cocktails Kill American Soldier

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct 24—(AP)—One American soldier is dead and 18 are ill, four critically from drinking "cocktails" of poison alcohol and fruit juice in a prison stockade at Heidelberg, the U. S. Third Army announced today.

Apparently with a party in mind, the soldiers poured an alcoholic fluid, of a type used in printing duplicating machines, into the fruit juice although the can containing the fluid was marked poison, the announcement said.

Physicians said they hoped to save those who are ill.

Non-Strikers Offer To Work

No Change In Strike Status Of Pilots For The TWA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Trans World Airline, whose pilots are on strike, reported today that "nearly 15,000" of its other employes came back to their jobs today with expressions of willingness to work for nothing until the pilot strike is settled.

President Jack Frye had notified the non-striking employes yesterday that they were being furloughed without pay "because of lack of revenue."

Frye expressed appreciation in a statement "for their loyalty."

The three-hour conference seeking to end the deadlock in the four-day old strike was held today in the office of chairman Frank Douglass of the National Mediation Board.

Afterward, Frye and David L. Bechncke, president of the AFL Air Line Pilots Association, stood by as Douglass told reporters of a recess until 9 a. m. EST tomorrow. It was the first meeting of the two leaders since Behncke delivered an ultimatum for higher pay and revised working rules.

No Change In Situation

Asked whether any progress had been made, Douglass said, "we always make progress." He added, in response to another question, they had not reached any common ground. There has been no change in the strike situation, Douglass said.

The strike began Monday morning, grounding 115 planes along TWA's 28,000 miles of route. It followed nearly 13 months of negotiations, mediations, and an earlier strike order which was cancelled after President Truman appointed an emergency fact-finding board last spring.

The company accepted the board's recommendations and put them into effect on Aug. 8, but the union announced its rejection of the proposed terms on Sept. 18 and submitted a memorandum of its demands on Saturday morning as 30-hour ultimatum.

Frye rejected the memorandum unless it could be used as the basis for negotiation Sunday afternoon, and Behncke called out the company's 1,400 pilots.

The pay and working rules involved in the union demand actually affect only 400 pilots assigned to four-engined aircraft.

The present pay now averages around $1,000 a month. The union is seeking a top pay of $1,187 a month with additional pay for overseas routes. Pilots of the international division now receive $750 a year extra.

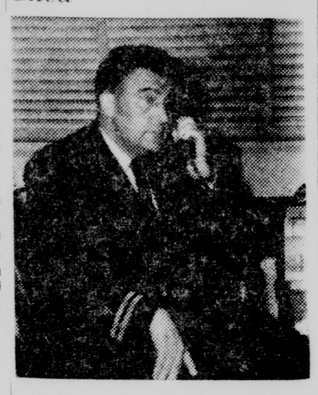

The strike stranded hundreds of passengers from Cairo to California, forced the diversion of many tons of mail and express to other airlines and the railroads and caused the layoff without pay of 15,000 other employees.

All But Six Laid Off

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24—(AP)—All but six of the approximately 200 T. W. A. employes here have been laid off because of the pilots' strike, district manager Glenn Craden said today. The workers included mechanics, teletype operators, passenger agents, radio operators and ground crews.

Besides Craden and a reservations manager at the downtown office, four employes were retained for maintenance work at Lambert-St. Louis airport.

Former Army Chaplain is Club Speaker

Talked on What GIs Look for in Their Home Town

The Rev. L. A. Swan, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, who served as an army chaplain for three and one-half years, addressed his fellow Sedalia Kiwanians at their meeting in Hotel Bothwell Thursday noon.

The speaker's subject was based on what the returned GI looks for in his home community, and chose the letters of the Kiwanis motto, "Builders," to capitalize words that signify what the GI looks for, such as Belief in his community, Unity, Imagination, Leadership, Development, Education, and Religion.

In his army service the GI underwent indoctrination and orientation to a solid belief in the principles of the democracy in which he lived, was willing to fight for and die for. After service he retained these beliefs, but upon returning home and witnessing the strikes, domestic turmoil and economic confusion among the home folks the GIs begin to wonder whether the people he fought for really believe in their own democracy.

Trained to Be Honest

The GI was trained to be honest and unified in his purpose, characteristics which should prevail among the home folks in their task of setting the country toward the goals of peace domestically and internationally.

Unity, imagination, leadership and cooperation, the speaker said, could be applied to such discordant minor situations as that now existing between the city administration and the moving picture people in Sedalia.

The spirit of all the beliefs held by the returned GI is cemented by religion, the one great force vital to the stability of mankind.

The speaker was introduced by the Rev. Bird Campbell, program chairman.

Birthday Song

Birthday greeting song was sung for Robert Henderson, H. U. Hunt and J. F. Downs.

The Rev. Fr. A. J. Brunswick announced that on November 14 the Kiwanians would meet jointly with the Optimist club, when Violinist Rubinoff will be on the program. The Thursday meeting falling on Thanksgiving day will be moved forward to 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 26.

The annual football banquet with Smith-Cotton High school football team as guests will be held December 12 in the evening.

The Rev. H. U. Campbell called attention and asked member support of the Community Chest drive which begins October 28.

Address Here By U.S. Senator Frank Briggs

Praise Given To Administration And Its Achievements

United States Senator Frank P. Briggs of Macon, Mo. addressed a large audience Thursday evening in the circuit court room, in his campaign to retain his seat in the senate, and also in behalf of electing and continuing of Democrats in congress.

He opened his speech by extending to the people his thanks for the enthusiasm with which he was received, and by informing them that he was happy to be in Pettis county.

He declared that he was proud to be a Missourian and glad to see the state in such a happy and prosperous stage. He recalled the old days, around 1932 and compared them with the present day. He brought in business first and declared that stores that line the streets of Sedalia are doing 70 per cent more business now than ever before and 200 per cent more business now than in '32.

Frown On Disaster

He brought in the old saying which the Republicans used in the "old days." He declared that they had claimed that "prosperity was just around the corner." "And now they say that disaster is just around the corner. I hope that disaster is as far away from that corner now as prosperity was when they referred to it at that time." He also said that certain persons were spreading a salve of discontentment over the nation.

Farmers In Good Shape

"Missouri farmers are in better shape now than they have ever been, because they have traveled the road, paved for them by the Democrats." As an example he said that a hired hand of his had told him about his sale of 16 hogs back in the '30's. He claimed that he had sold 16 gilts for $100 then, and now he sells five hogs, just like the sixteen and he received $513. "Now do you think agriculture is dissatisfied?" questioned the senator.

In Plea On Gas Distribution

CHICAGO, Oct. 24—(AP)—A plea for an emergency plan to solve the distribution problem connected with a limited supply of natural gas available to seven states during the coming winter was made today at a federal power commission hearing.

The supplying company, Panhandle Eastern Pipeline, serves utility companies and industry in Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Missouri, Michigan, Ohio, and Texas.

O. W. Martin, Panhandle vice president in charge of operations, told federal examiner Edward B. Marsh that the difference between consumer requirements for the coming winter and the capacity of Panhandle's system was 28,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

The plea for an emergency plan was made by Warren Henry, counsel for the Illinois commerce commission, and Lambert McAllister, attorney for the federal power commission.

Various utility companies have submitted data showing that their gas requirements for 1946-47, Martin said would reach an estimated 433,000,000 cubic feet per day. He estimated Panhandle pipeline capacity at only 405,000,000 cubic feet per day, including new facilities Panhandle expects to have in operation December 1.

Dwight Bedell, manager of the Jefferson City, Mo., Chamber of Commerce testified that the Panhandle proposal to limit the Missouri Power and Light Co. to 110 per cent of their prior peak load was "wholly inadequate."

Asserting that gas curtailment would hamper industrial expansion, Bedell added that "the people of Jefferson City had been led to believe that the gas supply was unlimited and of late years had been making their plans accordingly "by installing gas heat in their homes and otherwise using more gas.

Bewildered by Huge Price His Steer Brought

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Goes Home With Check for $44,375

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—A 15-year-old farm boy from Ida Grove, Iowa, said goodbye to his grand champion Hereford steer today and pocketed almost with unbelief a check for $44,375 — the price brought by the animal at auction at a world record price of $35.50 a pound.

Jack Hoffman, 4-H member whose T. O. Pride was named 1946 grand champion steer of the American Royal Livestock Show was still bewildered today by the bidding last night. E. W. Williams of the Williams Meat Company, paid the record price. American Royal officials said the previous world record price was $11.50 a pound.

The tall farm youngster and Karl Hoffman, his father, were in the main arena as the price began to climb with some 100 bidders at the opening.

Surprised at Price

"I thought $4 a pound would be good," the youth said. "I figured it might go to $10 or $11 a pound. Even in hoping, I never had thought of more than $11 a pound.

But the bidding opened at $5 a pound. And there was a big grin on Jack's face as he led his 1,250-pound fortune in beef around the ring. The crowd of 7,000 at the night horse show stirred with excitement at the drama in the spotlighted arena.

When it was over, Jack could scarcely believe it. When the auctioneer called to him, "Jack do you think you can afford to sell for $35.50 a pound?" the boy's answer was a $44,375 grin.

"Wonder how much Uncle Sam will take in income taxes?" Jack asked later.

The local office of the collector of internal revenue went to its comptometers and came up with a figure of $20,965.31, assuming the boy had no other income and disregarding certain deductables.

As for T. O. Pride himself he will go on exhibition until Christmas then Williams plans to present the $35.50-a-pound steaks to his friends and customers as Christmas gifts. Williams said he had been determined to have the steer at any price.

From the Raton Ranch

The champion steer was purchased 17 months ago from the T. O. Ranch at Raton, N. M.

The Royal's reserve champion, a 1,240-pound Angus steer owned by Carl Harkness of Golden, Col., brought $10 a pound.

The previous American Royal top for a champion was $3 10 a pound, paid in 1941.

At an auction sponsored by the American Hereford Association, 47 Hereford breeding cattle brought $27,910, with a top bull price of $2,250. paid for Larry Domino 86th, a nine-month-old 900-pound calf owned by M. A. Feeney, Phoenix, Ariz., president of the association. The Bob White Farms of Enterprise, Kas., bought the bull.

Top price of $1,500 on cows went to the Maplecrest Hereford Ranch of Welljam, Iowa, for McStarlet 22nd, bought by H. E. Tabor of Berryville, Ark.

Lie Calls For Action On Franco

Challenge Off-Floor Of UN, To Russia Over The Veto Question

By Francis W. Carpenter

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP) — Secretary - General Trygve Lie, mindful of the bitter debates among the greatest powers on the Spanish question, called upon the United Nations Assembly today to take a stand against Generalissimo Franco to remove what Lie suggested was a serious obstacle to the smooth progress of the United Nations.

Immediately after Lie's oral report to the Assembly, Mexico lead off the general debate with a strong demand for elimination or modification of the veto powers of the five permanent members of the United Nations Security Council. Dr. Francisco Castillo Najera, Mexican foreign minister and chief delegate, declared the veto harmful to the unity of the United Nations.

Lie in his statement, which was a supplement to his written report covering activities up to Aug. 1, said that the assembly "can do a valuable service by giving comprehensive guidance to the organs and member states of the United Nations, regarding their relationship with the Franco regime."

Re referred to the resolution adopted last winter in London by the Assembly condemning Franco and then said:

"It seems to be clear that as long as the Franco regime remains in Spain, it will remain a constant cause of mistrust and disagreement between the founders of the United Nations."

As Lie spoke, the Cuban delegate to the Assembly, Guillermo Belt issued an off-the-floor challenge to Soviet Russia to a last-ditch battle on the veto question.

Belt has submitted two proposals looking toward revising the U. N. Charter to eliminate the veto right of the five great powers in the Security Council. Noting reports that Russia would try to keep the Cuban proposals off the agenda by stilfling them in the general committee, Belt said he was confident the committee would recommend inclusion of those proposals.

Then he told a reporter:

"We could not expect another action from the General Assembly composed of a great majority of democratic governments: because, if we are not going to have freedom of expression and discussion in the General Assembly, I don't see what is the use in having an assembly."

Silent At Moment

While the Russian delegation remained silent at this first attack on the veto, it is known that Russia holds fast to her firm, definite and final conviction that the veto must be preserved as it is presently constituted.

The United States delegation decided today it would insist in the general committee on the full right of the Assembly to discuss the issue. The United States, while against eliminating the veto, favors moderation in its use.

The Spanish case first appeared in the Security Council in April when Poland demanded that the Security Council order all members of the U. N. to cut off diplomatic relations with Franco Spain. A sub-committee investigated and suggested that the matter be left to the discretion of the General Assembly at its fall meeting. Soviet Russia vetoed that on the grounds that Spain was proved to be a menace to peace and that the action was not strong enough. Finally the Council merely kept the case on the agenda.

While the Council has the case, the General Assembly cannot recommend action but it can discuss it throughly. There is a possibility that the question might be taken

Lights To Prevent Molt Of Pullets

A practice frequently used by successful poultrymen to aid in keeping early hatched pullets out of a fall molt is the use of artificial lights according to County Agent J. U. Morris.

Morning or evening lights can be used to furnish the birds with a 13 or 14 hour day, or all night lights work equally well. When evening lights are used some method of dimming the lighting give very good results. A forty-watt bulb is generally used when evening or morning lights are used.

The lights should be located about 6 feet above the floor and arranged so the feed and water containers are well lighter. Two lights, approximately 15 feet apart and 10 feet from the front, of a 30x30 Missouri type poultry house, will provide sufficient illumination. Two lights 10 feet apart should be used in the Missouri type 20x20 house. Lights should be arranged so they illuminate the roosts, otherwise the birds may fail to leave the roosts.

In the case of early pullets that have been maintaining good production without the use of lights, this practice may well be held in reserve until production starts to drop slightly. Prompt use of lights at that time woll usually provide the extra stimulus needed to keep production high. In many cases, an abrupt dip in the temperature in the late fall that would ordinarily slow up production can be overcome by starting use of lights at that time if they have not been needed earlier.

In addition to lighting early hatched pullets to prevent molt, late hatched pullets may be "forced" into earlier sexual maturity and egg production by using lights. Such pullets should be well developed physically, however, when lights are used a definite and uninterrupted schedule should be followed. This usually means continuing fall lighting up until March Discontinuing lights after they are started will cause the birds to molt and quit laying.

The reason lights increase production is due primarily to the stimulation of hormone production, which increases ovarian activity or egg production, says M. Morris. He further stated that it was believed until recently that increased consumption of feed and water caused the increase in number of eggs laid.

Council Plans For 1947 Program

The Home Economics County Council met at the Public Libary for the last meeting of the year. Final plans were made for Achievement Day and the "Mum" show which are to be held jointly at Convention Hall, Liberty Park on Thursday, October 24th. Exhibits will be placed in the morning and a covered dish luncheon will take care of the noon meal. A program consisting of musical numbers, a skit and a fashion show will start promptly at 2 o'clock. Ribbons for the Mum Show will also be awarded.

The county program for 1947 was discussed. The fine units adopted on a county basis included: Yard Improvement,—Shrubbery at its Best; Storage spaces for bedrooms and kitchens; covering buttons and belts; Business Facts for Women—Deeds and Dowers; Home Entertainment. Special interest groups will work on: Rug making; Leather Gloves; Purses; Handicraft and House Planning. All of the presidents were asked to urge their clubs to work with the Garden Clubs on the proposed Blue Star Drive, across the United States from coast to coast, special emphasis being given to the removing of unsightly signs along the highways.

The following were present: Mrs. Roy Jeffries, Miss Elizabeth Scott, Mrs. Raymond Nagen, Mrs. Margaret Youngkamp, Mrs. James Coffelt, Mrs. E. J. Dirck, Mrs. Lewis Hammand, Jr., Mrs. Raymond LaRue, Mrs. Vest Elliott, Mrs. Milton Bopp, Mrs. George Swope, Mrs. O. R. Demand, Mrs. C. E. Wells, Mrs. S. G. Moist Fattening Mash Being Used

A moist fattening mash for pullets is useful in maintaining the body weight of laying birds, says Norman Clizer, University of Missouri College of Agriculture. Often pullets that are laying heavily lose enough weight to bring on a fall molt, he says.

The moist mash can be fed at noon and in amounts the flock will clean up in 15 or 20 minutes. A good formula to keep the body weight is 70 pounds of ground corn, 20 pounds shorts, and 5 pounds of meat scraps. In case skim milk can be used to moisten the mash, the meat scraps may be left out.

Proper Care For Kerosene Stove

In Extension Circular 518 by Madonna Fitzgerald and Louise Woodruff it is pointed out that if your kerosene stove is to be stored or not used during the winter, proper care before and during the storage period will keep it in good condition for future use. The authors of this circular suggest 5 steps necessary to properly prepare and store a kerosene stove:

Drain all fuel

Clean all parts

Oil any metal parts which might rust

Protect from dust—particularly the burners

Keep the stove in a dry place.

The service you get from your stove and the safety with which it operates depend largely on the care it receives. With the aid of drawings and photographs, this circular tells how to keep the stove clean, how to adjust the wicks or lighting rings, and how to stop leaks and make repairs.

A useful feature of the publication is a check list showing the various types of faulty operation and the possible causes of each. This list will help you find the cause of the difficulty. Furthermore, suggestions are given on how to remove or correct the trouble. This circular may be obtained at the Extension Office, 410½ South Ohio.

Wright Held in Robbery Case

Quincy Wright, 418 North Osage avenue, has been charged with robbery in connection with the beating up and robbing Millard Pilkenton, 225 East Boonville. Wright has been identified by Pilkenton, as one of the two Negroes who accosted him at the north end of the railroad viaduct on Washington street, about 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning, knocked him down and took $38 in money, his shoes, cigarette lighter and knife.

The description of the second Negro was given the police but one answering such description has not been found. Wright, however, was picked up a few minutes after the robbery and when taken to police headquarters was immediately identified as one of the two.

Wright is to be given a hearing before Magistrate W. E. Scotten, ex-officio Justice of the Peace, sometime this week. He is held in the county jail in default of a bond.

Chickens Double-Crossed For Poultry of Tomorrow

Drawing-Board Conception of New Model Hen

The bird of tomorrow will be worth two of today's, contends Artist Arthur Schilling, who painted this family portrait of the "Chicken-of-Tomorrow," cross-bred from three different poultry strains.

By NEA Service

NEW YORK (NEA)—With the encouragement of prize money and kind words from federal and state agricultural departments, poultry breeders now are turning out new models of chickens just the way the automobile makers, radio manufacturers, and baseball leagues turn out new models each year.

All over the country, professional and amateur poultry breeders are crossing and double-crossing—not for streamlining, but to produce a broad-breasted bird with big juicy drumsticks and a large proportion of meat to bone.

All models will continue to have the standard number of legs, but other than that, there's no telling what will come out of the hennery assembly lines in years to come.

To give the chicken raisers a few ideas for the ruture, Arthur Schilling, an artist who is also an authority on poultry raising, was commissioned by a big food store chain to paint his conception of the perfect eating chicken of the future.

He envisioned a three-way cross. He took three-quarters White Plymouth Rock for size, shape, relative speed of maturity and ability to reproduce. He introduced an eighth strain of Cornish to broaden and deepen the breast and another eighth of Dorking to elongate and thicken the meat on the drumsticks. Then he painted a family portrait of the imaginary result.

None of the first year prize winners in the contest have followed Schilling's formula. Some have won by selective breeding of straight blood lines, while others have used their own crosses.

Harold Tompkins, of Concord, Mass., walked off with the top Bay State honors with Rhode Island Reds. Out in Indiana, Leroy Jones and his son Lucien crossed two Plymouth Rocks, the white and the barred, for first honors. John Spangenberg, of West Haven, Conn., won with a strain of White Rock crossed with Cornish on which he has been experimenting for 14 years. In Cane Hill, Ark., Mrs. Marion Lee Matthews' White Rocks beat out her husband's White Wyandottes for top place.

Wilbur Rue, a rural mail carrier of Allentown, N. J., just squeezed into the contest with his hobby flock of 50 chickens, and then he won. He won't tell anybody, including the contest sponsors, what breed or cross he is working with.

Next year, state winners will compete in regional contests, and in 1948 regional winners will try for the big national prize. There is no telling how big, fat, juicy, tender and tasy they will have made chickens by then. Already gourmets are consulting the thesaurus for adjectives.

Dentists Pare In VA Service

Approximately 800 registered dentists in the area served by the Kansas City office of the Veterans Administration now are participating in the VA's new "home-town" dental service for veterans with service-connected tooth troubles, W. F. Fidler in charge of the local VA office announces.

Dentists from Sedalia, Missouri, who are participating in this outpatient service to veterans with service-connected dental disabilities include the following:

Dr. George H. Abney, Dr. Orlis L. Durnell, Dr. Herbert N. Hunter. Dr. Franklin I. Lawrence, Dr. G. W. Rodger, Dr. Thomas W. Bast, Dr. Beverley E. Broaddus, Dr. Ben E. Klein, Dr. Walter E. Pearl.

Under this new plan, a veteran may go to any participating dentist in his own town, after obtaining Veterans Administration approval, for examination. A report of the examination will be studied by the VA, and if the veteran's trouble is found to be service-connected, the hometown dentist will proceed with treatment and send his bill to the VA.

The VA classes as "service-connected" any dental disability which is found to exist within 12 months after the veteran's discharge from the service, if the veteran served at least six months and the dental trouble was not present when he entered service. Veterans interested in this provision should contact the local Veterans Administration office at 511 South Ohio.

Morton Family Being Sought

Sedalia police have been requested to locate relatives of the late Robert Morton, who resided in Sedalia nearly 80 years ago. The information is sought by Dr. E. Ross Laughlin, Willard, N. Y., through a letter to Chief of Police Anson Finnell written by Martin Astrup, Chief of Police at Willard.

According to the letter Mr. Morton was born near Thomasburg, Hastings County, Ontario, Canada, 100 years ago. After a few years residing there Mr. Morton moved to Sedalia, and it is the belief that members of the family still reside in this vicinity.

Anyone having any information regarding relatives are requested to contact Chief Finnell at police headquarters.

Make Tour Of Breeding Farm

Dairymen In Group In Visit To Springfield

A group of 14 dairymen, all of whom are participating in the local artificial breeding program, accompanied County Agent J. U. Morris on a tour of the M. F. A. Artificial Breeding farm at Springfield Tuesday October 15th.

Upon arrival at the farm, John Faucett, Manager, showed the group the herd sires in use, commenting upon their breeding, production and classification. Most of the bulls have been classified as very good or excellent. Three breeds, Jersey, Guernsey and Holsteins consisting of about 40 head are kept on the farm. Not only are the bulls good idividuals but they carry some of the best of blood lines and are bred for high production.

The group had an opportunity to see how the bulls are exercised, fed and managed to keep them on the best servicable condition. The group was shown through the office and saw the system used in keeping records.

One question was about the two Jersey bulls who stand for a $25.00 fee instead of $6.00. Mr. Faucett, obligingly had them led out. He explained that their production behind them was no higher then some of the other bulls at the plant but that they had some famous blood lines behind them that were now growing scarce and therefore the high fee. He urged the men to use these bulls on one or two regular cows and said that extra semen could be used on grade cows at the regular $6.00 fee.

Question Jersey Group

Mr. Faucett questioned the Jersey men in the group regarding the breeding they would like to use when their heifers were old enough. He suggested "Pinnacle" breeding and had a circle of "Pinnacle" bulls which are now being used on another circuit brought out for inspection.

After eating together the group settled down to discussing with Mr. Faucett problems they had encountered so far in utilizing the service. Besides difficulties in getting some cows "settled," questions were asked on "Bangs" mastitis and vaginitis.

Mr. Faucett said they have been doing everything possible to find why some cows and some herds were hard to settle.

Sometimes, he said, our breeding troubles have been traced to a lack of minerals or vitamins. However, he added, we are not alone in this, many folks with their own bull are having the same troubles.

The folks making the tour were pleased wit hthe quality of the bulls and with the frankness of Mr. Faucett in discussing their problems with the mand expressed appreciation for the opportunity to make the trip. Those going included: William Borman, Clarence Brunjes, Mr. Eickhoff, Ralph Thomas, Ernest Schlobohm, Tom Perrin, O. W. McClain, Charles Jurries, Steve McClure, Hubert Davison, Fred Buchs, Gene Garvin, Clayton Paterman, Jimmie Toboben, Melre Vaught and J. U. Morris.

The Pettis County Association now has over 1,000 cows signed up. A new inseminater, Victor Miller took over recently for Hubert Davison, who resigned to go into the work. Mr. Miller is iving on the old Limestone Valley Farm north of Smithton, but has a Sedalia telephone. His number is 38F21.

Mrs. Enloe Bowers, 405 East Thirteenth street, driving a 1941 Chevrolet coupe and headed west, struck the first steer, knocking it to one side of the road. She was driving at a very slow rate of speed and only had about $25 damage to her automobile, while the steer suffered no more than a bruise or two.

Hardly five minutes passed until another car, coming from the west, driven by John "Jack" Foltz, Terry Hotel, hit another steer, killing it. Foltz was driving his 1941 Buick sedan at a fairly fast rate of speed, according to the State Troopers when he hit the animal.

Red Cross Corner

Interest in the Pettis County Chapter is being centered in the month of November, which to the American Red Cross is the month of Junior Red Cross enrollment. Miss Nettie Lamm, chairman of JRC, will devote many volunteer hours to this project, for the enrollment takes place not only in Sedalia proper, but in all of the county schools as well. The record for Junior Red Cross in Sedalia and Pettis county is a brilliant one; the articles made by our school children have not only gone out all over the entire world, but have been enthusiastically received by the military and naval and veterans hospitals to which they have been sent. We feel certain that the 1946 enrollment will continue this record.

Mrs. John C. McLaughlin announces the shipment of another supply of knitted garments. S-C Tigers Win 20-6 From Hannibal

Their First Victory In The Big Six Conference This year

Smith-Cotton high school making it's debut in the Central Missouri Conference won over Hannibal high school Friday night, by a score of 20 to 6, the game being played at Hannibal. It was the second loss for the Hannibal Pirates in three title starts.

Hannibal defeated by Columbia a week ago 25 to19 won it's first conference battle over Jefferson City 6 to 0.

To Columbia Friday

The Tigers journey to Columbia next Friday to meet the Kewpies in a night game. Columbia has always been a hard aggregation for the Tigers to defeat and they will be out to hammer the Kewpies from the top of the conference in this game.

Coach Ralph Dow's boys came through in the first quarter driving hard to get the first blood, but Rodgers failed to make good the kick. The second quarter a let down was experienced by the Tigers and the Bucs evened up the score.

But after the half-time "pep talk" by Dow and his charges, resulted in continuous drives and football headwork by every player on the team, all which netted a touchdown in the third stanza and again in the fourth with Rodgers coming through to make both conversions.

A Tiger 71-yard Drive

The first period score came after a 71 yard drive. The combination of Rogers, Mickens and the help of Schultz and Green, the Tiger backfield clicked throughout the contest. Substitutions of Coach Dow, seemed to fit in like working cogs and the team rolled along for those three stanzas, the first, third and fourth.

The line plays found Monsees, Cook and Bergman carrying on their part exceptionally well while the other players didn't hesitate to get into the affray at every opportunity to the benefit of Sedalia.

Mickens made the first touchdown, he took it over again in the third quarter, and Aogers was the scoring player in the fourth.

Jerry Young was the ball carrier for Hanniba. and drove through Sedalia's right tackle for their first and only blood.

The lineups:

SEDALIA	Pos.	HANNIBAL

Officials: Referee, Lindquist(Ill. Wes.); umpire, Eggbert (Wash.St.); head linesman, Henry (K. C. T. C).

Score by quarters:

Garden Club In Tree Pilgrimage

Thirty members of the Sedalia Garden club enjoyed a pilgrimage to trees Tuesday afternoon under the direction of the horticulture and garden pilgrimage committee, of which Mrs. B. E. Heacock is chairman.

The first stop of the pilgrimage was at the home of Mr. Frank Hayes, Tenth street and State Fair Boulevard, where the large old cottonwood was seen. It is said that during the Civil war the soldiers rested in the shade of the big tree.

The second stop was at the Highway Gardens at the State fair grounds. More than twenty different trees and shrubs native to Missouri were shown by Hillard Brewster, who also told many interesting things about each tree or shrub.

The third stop was at the home of Dr. F. R. Morley, where there are many interesting trees and shrubs. Most of them have been planted by Dr. Morley, who told about each of them. The trees there have a very interesting historical background, and are spoken of as the twin Hackberries. Another tree, an immense old elm with a spread of ninety feet, is said to be over one hundred years old.

Members of the Garden club who made the pilgrimage found it very interesting and instructive.

A 4,500-year old Canaanite temple, believed to be the oldest building ever discovered in the middle east, has been unearthed at the southern end of the sea of Galilee.

Safety Chairman, Stress Accident Prevention

John M. Baggot, of St. Louis, National Safety Chairman for the Travelers Protective Association, was the speaker at Rotary Monday noon at the Bothwell hotel. Mr. Baggot, a member of the national board of directors on the T. P. A., is an able speaker and addressed the group on the T. P. A. sponsored "National Accident Prevention Week."

At the national convention of the Travelers Protective Association which was held in St. Paul, Minn., in June of this year, it was brought to the attention of the association that over two milion boys and girls under the age of 18, are killed or injured by accidents every year. Eighteen thousand of this number are killed and every day six hundred and sixty-five students who leave home for school are victims of accidents that either cost their lives or injure them seriously.

The T. P. A. seeing the need to stress the importance of safety for the children voted to sponsor a campaign for "National Safety Week" in an effort to prevent these accidents.

Sends Out Speakers

The week of October 21 has been chosen as "National Safety Week" and T. P. A. is sending out speakers to all cities that have a local T.P.A.

Post F, of Sedalia, has Mr. Baggot as their speaker for this occasion and in addition to his talk at Rotary, he will also address the students in the various city schools as far as his time permits. Leo E. Eickhoff, president of Post F, Mrs. Eickhoff, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jones and L. Bahrenburg, secretary of Post F., are in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Baggot will stress particularly the accidents caused by children riding bicycles, for which both drivers of automobiles and the children themselves are responsible. The need to educate people in safety is a necessity as practically all accidents are caused by carelessness.

The Travelers Protective Association believes that such great results have been achieved in the past few years through "Fire Prevention Week," "National Health Week" and various other weeks set aside to bring things to the attention of the public that it believes the same thing can be accomplished with "The National Child Accident Prevention Week." Through its national office the association is working for a Federal Department of Safety in Washington or a bureau of Safety in the U. S. Department of Health.

"The National Child Accident Prevention Week" is based on the determination of the T. P. A. to bring forcefully to all people of our country the great problem of saving the life and limb of the youth of America.

Lie Calls For Action On Franco

off the Council agenda so that the Assembly can act.

To Study Problem

The first reaction from the United States delegation to Lie's call for action was that it would have to study the question, which it expected to do at an early delegation meeting. In the debates in the Council the United States made clear its dislike for the Franco regime but that it felt breaking diplomatic relations was too stringent at this time.

Lie reminded the delegates that the case had been thoroughly argued in the security council and in the economic and social council.

"It is probable," he said, "that other organs of the United Nations as well as the specialized agencies will also be impeded by the Spanish question."

Turning to the United Nations atomic energy commission, Lie said there had been progress in its search for atomic controls "but this progress has been strictly limited and it has been slow."

"The problem is deeply involved and it clearly required time to solve," he said. "It is enough to say that nobody in this world can sleep peacefully until it is solved and it is up to the United Nations, through the atomic energy commission, to do the job."

Lie told the delegates that he needs additional space for the secretariat; that the United Nations as of October 15 had 2,992 employees; and that $23,500,000 of the $25,000,000 working capital fund of the U. N. had been paid. He said that seven nations so far have not made any contribution but his report did not name them.

Sugar Shortage More Acute in Eastern States

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Why the acute sugar shortage? How long will it last? When will everybody get more sugar?

Here are answers. They come from the government's agriculture department.

The shortage is acute in the eastern states only. The reason: The maritime strike.

Those eastern states depend almost entirely upon sugar brought into this country from Cuba and Puerto Rico.

Ships loaded with about 60,000,000 pounds of sugar from those two countries are strike-bound in eastern harbors.

When they can be unloaded — and the steady flow of sugar is resumed — the acute shortage will end.

That is, just the acute shortage will end. There is a national shortage, but it is not so severe elsewhere as in the east now. Why?

Two Kinds of Sugar

Your table sugar comes from two kinds of sugar: Cane and beet sugar. Both are grown on the American mainland.

But what is grown here is not enough for us. It will provide only about 30 percent of our sugar needs.

So we have to import sugar to fill our needs. All that we import is sugar cane. We use up our own beet sugar. But still we can't get enough imports.

The beet sugar we use is grown in the middle western and western states. Those states, being close to the source of supply, use much beet sugar.

Right now, because of their nearness to the source of the beet sugar supply. Those middle western and western states are better off than the east which depends upon imports.

West Into Zones

OPA has divided the western part of the country into zones—for the distribution of beet sugar—but had put restrictions on the shipment of that kind of sugar into the strike-bound east.

An OPA official today said OPA would not lift those restrictions because OPA did not want to be put in the position of being a strikebreaker.

He said labor leaders in the eastern strike would blame the OPA for trying to break the trucking and maritime strikes.

At this time rationing in this country is intended to provide about 15 pounds of table sugar for each person a year. It's expected to stay that way at least until next April 1.

By that date this government will know pretty well how the supplies for 1947 will be. If they're better than in 1946, there may be an increase in the amount of table sugar all of us can get.

But, why the national shortage and the rationing? Here's the story on that:

No Sugar From P. I.

Before the war this country used up about 7,000,000 tons of sugar a year. Of that total we grew about 1,500,000 tons in sugar beets and 400,000 in cane sugar.

The rest we imported, taking 1,000,000 tons alone from the Philippines.

But the Japanese ruined the Philippines' plantations. This year we not only got no sugar from the Philippines but had to send some there.

It may be several years before we start again to get sugar in any quantity from those islands.

In addition, we have to help other countries which are much worse off for sugar than we.

Java Cut Off

(Canada and the United Kingdom are the only two countries which have as much sugar as we.)

Java used to grow for export to other countries about 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 tons of sugar a year. The Japanese ruined those plantations, too.

So Java is one source of supply for other countries now cut off.

Further the production of European countries, which used to grow a lot of sugar beets, was badly banged up by the war. They're not back to normal.

Ask Judge to Spare Youth

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 24—(AP)—Circuit Judge Casper Platt today considered pleas asking that he not impose a death sentence on Robert Beatty, 21-year-old farm youth, who has pleaded guilty to a charge of murdering Lois Nelson, his pretty 19-year-old girl friend.

Beatty's attorneys asked that his life be spared because "he is a psycho-neurotic and was under the influence of alcohol at the time of the stabbing." Miss Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Nelson, told the court they did not want Beatty to be sentenced to death, but recommended he be confined to an institution for life.

Miss Nelson was slain in a lovers' lane last Aug. 17. Assistant state's attorney John W. Unger said Beatty had signed a statement that he stobbed her seven times after she resisted his advances.

Address Here By U. S. Senator Frank Briggs

aid the farmer it aids the laborer. "In 1932 the man who used his hands to earn a livelihood got only 42 cents an hour for his services and now, in the present, they are making one dollar and up."

"The G. I's have not been neglected. They returned from service to find that they are being treated as no other group who returns from war has ever been treated. They have not been sent out on the street corners to sell apples and pencils, but have been spared this by a wise act of government. Schooling has been offered them . . that they might rehabilitate themselves. The disabled veterans have been shown new ways of living."

"Old age has not been left out, nor the children nor the working man. Old age pensions, social security, more varied educations, are available," he stated.

He stated that for the first time the peoples of the world are really striving for world peace and security, the peace and security for which 8,000 Missouri boys have sacrificed their lives.

The United Nations conference in San Francisco had trouble when certain factors tried to nullify the acts sent through the senate. Missouri does not wish to nullify these things, the senator went on to say.

He warned that Missouri could not sleep at the switch when November 5th came around.

In conclusion Mr. Briggs stated Missouri would see that it is represented in the senate by one who would do unto others as he would want others to do unto him. In this application of the golden rule, he stated that it should apply to this nation and other nations as well.

Preceding the address Emmet P. Sullivan, chairman of the Pettis County Democratic Central Committee, introduced the Democratic candidates of the county ticket. No talks were made by these men though they were each given an opportunity to express themselves before the group.

Address By Roy Harper

After the introductions made by Mr. Sullivan, he presented to the audience Roy Harper, chairman of the state campaign, who gave an extemporaneous speech as an opener.

He spoke of the rapid rise of the nation through the years under the Democratic administration. "There is no more worrying because the Democrats have fixed everything," he claimed.

He asked if the man who is running against Briggs, "a man who makes between $50,000 and $100,000 a year," could represent the "common people" in the senate. He also claimed that 'they' did mud slinging, but that this administration was not in for that. They only want to do what they can for the people.

"I know the country will be safe if Senator Briggs is reelected, but if he isn't heaven only knows the answer."

He then gave the floor to Frank W. Hayes, a member of the state committee, who gave a short introductory speech before presenting Mr. Briggs. He said that he liked Briggs because he voted as he saw fit. He then gave the senator the floor and the chief address of the evening proceeded.

More Decontrol Developing

By Edwin B. Haakinson

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Another major amputation of price controls—this time in the non food field—was under way today within the OPA.

One informed official who would not permit use of his name said it is expected to match the action of last midnight which yanked price lids from all foods and drinks except sugar, syrups and rice.

"We are trying to round out all these actions for announcement by Nov. 1 or before but it's a big job and we may not hit that deadline," he said.

The announcement is expected before the Nov. 5 elections. It will be another step in the decontrol process President Truman speeded up when he removed price ceilings from meats and livestock.

Some congressmen and candidates of both parties have threatened to kill off OPA. Administration leaders hope to maintain ceilings on rents, automobiles, building material, some basic low-cost clothing, many durable goods, and scarce items such as sugar and soap.

In an effort to salvage this much of the control program from a possibly hostile congress, orders have gone out to cut away every price ceiling that is unimportant to business or living costs or where supplies are near balance with demand.

Ceilings were removed today from binder and baler twines used to harvest grains, hay and other crops; cosmetics that were not previously decontrolled; and a miscellaneous list of more than 100 other non-food items.

'Rich-Poor' Man Born in Kansas

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Oct. 24.—(AP)—William E. Kaegi, 80, who was found to have left an estate valued at $45,000 after dying in apparent poverty at City hospital in St. Louis July 28, was born and reared in Kansas.

A brother, Fred Kaegi, is a Leavenworth blacksmith. Two other brothers, George and Herb, and a sister, Miss Lucy Kaegi, live at Eudora, Kas.

Members of the family here said they knew Kaegi had some money.

In St. Louis yesterday, Public Administrator John P. Cullinane said investigators checking Kaegi's two-room apartment found a bank book listing an account of $2,445, cash totaling $286, and a key to a safe deposit box which contained $32,452 in stocks and $10,000 in bonds.

Kaegi was born at Eudora. When a young man he went to St. Louis, where he learned the barber business. He visited relatives here once a year.

AME Bishop Is Suspended

CINCINNATI, Oct. 24—(AP)—Rev. Wallace M. Wright, spokesman for the Council of Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal church, said today the council had ordered the suspension of Bishop David H. Sims of Philadelphia on charges of "open rebellion."

Bishop Sims, head of the First AME district, and Bishop W. A. Fountain of Atlanta, Ga., head of the Sixth AME district, were to have been tried by a church court here Tuesday on "rebellion" charges but the proceedings were halted after the defendant bishops obtained a federal court injunction restraining the trial.

Rev. Wright said "Bishop Sims was suspended because he has consistently gone into the courts to prevent his trial." He said there was no suspension action against Bishop Fountain "because the charges against him are not serious. Only that out of friendship has he defended Bishop Sims."

The council also ordered a special general conference of the church at Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 20-24, to consider the cases of Bishops Sims and Fountain, Rev. Wright said.

Churchill Sues, Alleges Libel

LONDON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Winston Chudchill sued Harper and Brothers, New York and London publishers, and author Louis Adamic today for libel, seeking damages for passages in Adamic's book "Dinner at the White House."

The suit also sought an injunction banning further publication and sale of the book, which was written around a White House dinner table conversation among President Roosevelt, Churchill, Adamic and other guests.

The libel writ listed no specific amount of damages, which in England are determined by a jury if it decides in favor of the plaintiff. The writ will be tried in the high court.

In his book Adamic described an hour and a half he and his wife spent at dinner at the White House on January 13, 1943 as the guest of the later President and Mrs. Roosevelt. He used his observations of Roosevelt and Churchill as a point of departure for a discussion of Soviet Socialism and British Imperialism in relation to U. S. policy.

VFW May Permit Women to Join

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars still bars women veterans—but there are signs of a weakening.

Louis E. Starr, V. F. W. commander-in-chief, told reporters yesterday that women veterans of the Spanish-American war—yes, there were some—were the first to agitate for membership in the VFW.

They were unsuccessful.

"Then the women veterans of World War I tried to get in," said Starr. "We kept 'em out.

"Now the women who served in World War II want in. During the war we said no. Now the World War II men are back and apparently many of them want to admit women as members."

New Hospital For Veterans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(AP)—A hospital construction program costing $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 was announced today by the Veterans Administration.

Presidential approval for building 13 such institutions was given, but actual work cannot start until congress appropriates funds. This means, a veterans administration spokesman said, that ground will not be turned for perhaps a year and the hospitals probably will not be ready for occupancy for two years.

In the same action, President Truman cancelled previous authorizations for additions to five pneuro-psychiatric hospitals and four veterans' homes.

The new hospitals include: 1,000 bed neuro-psychiatric hospitals at Los Angeles; the San Francisco Bay area; Topeka, Kas.; Boston, the North Carolina area, and Memphis, Tenn.

The Topeka hospital will replace the Winter General Hospital, borrowed from the army.

Would Admit More Refugees

By Alex H. Singleton

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—President Truman called anew today for a lowering of American bars to immigration, to the extent that some of Europe's political refugees can find sanctuary in this country.

He raised the possibility of congressional action next year in agreeing, in a news conference discussion, that present immigration quotas can only be changed by congress.

Last August, Mr. Truman proposed in a statement on Palestine that a "fixed number" of displaced Europeans be admitted to this country. This brought a counter-proposal by Rep. Gossett (D-Tex) that congress instead cut present quotas by half as soon as it reconvened.

Administration sympathy for refugees was demonstrated as Attorney General Tom Clark halted today—at least temporarily — an immigration order which gave a small band of Estonians a choice between leaving this country or being deported.

The stop order came as the 18 Estonians were preparing to leave Miami, Fla., the haven into which they put after sailing 6,000 miles in an ancient 36-foot sloop. They had been told to make up their minds today about leaving but immigration authorities at Miami said they would have been given ample time to make ready, even without the Clark order.

Their plight was raised at the chief executive's news conference with a query on the apparent divergence between the immigration office's attitude and the standing state department position against forcible deportation of political refugees.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24—(AP)—William R. Love, 28, was found dead in a closet of his house in suburban Wellston following a fire early this morning. Mrs. Elaine Love told St. Louis county deputy sheriffs her husband frequently smoked in bed and may have caused the fire.

Capt. Ernest Byrne of the University City fire department, who estimated damage to the building at $2,500, said his men removed Mrs. Bonnie Golforth, a roomer, and her 4-year-old daughter from the roof. Two other persons made their way out of the building.

Russian Buys Three Houses

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet representative to the United Nations, and important members of his delegation plan to move into Manhattan's fashionable upper east side by purchasing three town houses at a reported cost of more than $600,000.

Negotiations are almost completed for the purchase of the three houses on East 79th street, real estate sources said today.

The five-story houses, built about 40 years ago, are of limestone facade and contain extensive panelings and bronze fittings.

Gromyko recently leased four upper floors of a five-story apartment building on West 88th street for minor Russian employes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—(AP)—Members of the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association (CIO) here today voted, 1,549 to 93, to accept an agreement reached between the union and the companies and agents of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts as a basis of settlement of the strike which began October 1.

The New York vote, representing one of the largest local MEBA memberships in the country, was taken while MEBA members in other eastern and gulf coast cities also were scheduled to be voting.

All results are being sent to washington, D. C., a union spokesman said, for tabulation by the union's executive board. Meanwhile, the deadlock between ship operators and deck officers continued.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. Witnesses at the inquest related that Boggs noticed a life preserver floating in the river and told them he was going to retrieve it.

His motor boat was found the next day between Rocheport and Huntsdale. A $50 reward had been offered for recovery of the body.

Boggs is survived by five brothers, all of the New Franklin community.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(AP)—A Colorado grown steer, which won the reserve grand championship at the American Royal Livestock show, soon will furnish a feast for the University of Missouri football team.

The 1,240 pound Angus, sold by Don Harkness of Golden, Colo., will be presented to the Tiger grid team by the American Meat Co., which paid $10.50 a pound for the animal.

It will be some time, however, before the not-so-recently meat hungry Tiger will feast on the beef. The steer will be taken to Columbia and presented to the team before the Southern Methodist game next Saturday.

It will then be flown to St. Joseph, Mo., for slaughter by the Dugdale Packing Co., officials of the firm said the meat should be properly aged by Thanksgiving.

Mother's Faith Remains Firm

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Mrs. Fred Bowers' faith that the Lord will make her 11-year-old son, ill with infantile paralysis, well again without medical aid remained firm today as she reported he was "100 per cent improved."

City health officials had told the boy's parents that he might not live unless he was placed in a respirator. They had urged that he be removed from his home to a hospital.

Ray Logan, city health commissioner, quarantined the home Monday. He said the boy, Philip Bowers, who was stricken 11 days ago, was having a hard time breathing and his legs appeared paralyzed.

Philip's father indicated he might consent to putting the boy in a hospital when informed by Logan of his scant chance to live if he was kept at home. But Mrs. Bowers insisted:

"I have never doubted for a minute prayer will save him."

The Rev. Fred Klings, pastor of the In the Name of Jesus church of which the Bowers are members, said his congregation are in "constant prayer" for the youth.
